Homecoming Court With Queen Callie

Callie Frazier Is Crowned Homecoming Queen

Following the Oxford High-Hillsboro game here October 17, Homecoming Queen Callie Frazier was presented with her court at the annual Homecoming Dance held in the gym, sponsored by the Student Council. All high school students and alumni of O.H.S. were invited.

Bonnie Lou Currin, accompanied by Betty Daniel at the piano, sang a medley of songs.

The highlight of the dance was the presentation of the Queen and her court. Callie Frazier, Homecoming Queen, who had previously been crowned by Fielding Walker during the half-time of the game, was escorted by Charles Stovall. In her court were Polly Daniel, maid of honor, escorted by Charles Belcher; Betty Howard with Ray Williford; Lillian McFarland with Jimmy Frazier; Linda Currin with Billy Daniel; Lea Lea Hall with Donnie Hawks; Cynthia Watkins with Billy Frazier, and Diane Saunders with Wilbur Longmire.

"Royalty and Stars", the dance theme, was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. At the refreshment table, decorated with stars and scepters, punch, potato chips and cookies were served by members of the Student Council.

Beta Club Again Has Large Crowd At Stunt Night

Beta Club Stunt Night October 31 again attracted more spectators than could be seated in the auditorium, John Webb and Marsha Ray serving as emcees. Joe Wheeler is Beta president.

G. A. A. won first prize with their skit "Shakespearean Hash". Those taking part were Betty Lou Rawls, Julia Ruth Carrington, Bonnie Lou Currin, Charlotte Easton, Lelia McFarland, Nancy Griffin, and Lillian McFarland.

The French Club won second place with their skit of "Evening in Paris", and Mr. Habit's homeroom won third place with "Fashion Parade", featuring boys modeling styles. In the talent division Bonnie Lou Currin, soprano soloist, won.

Mrs. Squires' homeroom won the prize in the Junior High with their version of "Lollipop."

Betty Daniel played a medley of songs during intermission.

Stunts or talent try-outs were presented by seven high-school homerooms, by eight in the Junior High, and by nine clubs and organizations. Doris Watson and Bonnie Currin entered the talent division.

Other Beta officers are May White, vice-president, Mildred Brooks, secretary, and Linda Garner, treasurer.

To Chapel Hill For S. C. Congress

The Student Council Congress is being held November 2-4 at Chapel Hill.

Those representing Oxford High School are Mrs. Speed, Fielding Walker, Betty Lou Rawls, and Julia Carrington.

Juniors Encore Belcher Again

The Junior class for the third year elected Charles Belcher as their president.

Serving with him are Ray Williford as vice-president, Judith Currin as secretary, Betty Lou Rawls as treasurer, and Annie Laura Dixon as historian.

Belcher is a member of the Monogram Club, president of Miss Bunn's homeroom, and co-captain of the varsity football team on which he plays halfback. He plans to play basketball and track later.

Ray is a Student Council representative, a member of the Monogram Club and French Club, and plays center on the football team. He also plans to participate in basketball and track.

Judith is on the Oxonian staff, secretary of the Student Council, secretary of F. H. A., reporter for G. A. A., and president of Miss Averett's homeroom.

Betty Lou is in G. A. A., vice-president of F. H. A., Bus Drivers' Club, an honorary French Club member, and vice-president of the Student Council.
