

CLASS NEWS

(Continued From Page Three) work very much. We have a science corner in our classroom. We have collected pine cones, bird nests, acorns, and walnuts. We are now studying about the turtle. His name is Joe. He belongs to the Reptile Family. He is a swimming turtle. He eats earth worms, hamburger, and vegetables. He travels around in the classroom daily for exercise.

We are decorating our classroom with autumn leaves, pumpkins, and black cats.

We are studying October poems, reading stories about Witches, pumpkins and Owls. Reporter..... Lizzie Hunt

FOURTH GRADE SECTION 4H

Mrs. F. J. Hawley, Teacher

We are trying very hard to make this our very best school year. I am sure with the class officers that we have, that this will be one of our best years. Our officers are as follows:

Steven Downey, President
Katheleen Cheatam, Secretary;
Grace Harris, Treasurer

The class is very much interested in our science table. Each child has tried to bring something of interest for the science table which we will study this month. Our teacher, Mrs. F. J. Hawley, is very much interested in our health and our safety. These are some of the rules that we have learned and try to keep everyday.

1. Go to bed early
2. Play out of doors
3. Drink plenty of milk
4. Eat plenty of vegetables
5. Brush your teeth everyday
6. Sunshine makes healthy bodies.

FIFTH GRADE SECTION 5C

Mrs. M. J. Cureton, Teacher

Our classroom work has been fun throughout our first two months of school. We had much fun building a terrarium planting flowers, and hunting moss from the woods. We started about plants while doing this project and how to care for those which grow in the house. We have also started a few dish gardens.

We have started our mural showing the beginning of America. Our poem for the month was "Book Pals" about which we are planning a play.

FIFTH GRADE SECTION 5F

Miss Betty Jo Foster, Teacher

Early in the year our class became organized. The following officers were elected: President, Harold Hunt; Vice-President, Jacqueline Walton; Secretary, Alice Baskerville; Assistant Secretary, Judith Cotton; Treasurer, Alfred Bagby.

Our class has done many interesting things. We are trying to make things pleasant for everyone at our school.

We are getting settled in our new classroom. We are very proud of it. We are beginning to do different things such as making the science shelf, developing our Transportation Unit, and studying various plants.

Our class takes an active part in all school activities. Our student council representatives are Alfred Bagby and Alice Baskerville. One of our aims for the year is to improve ourselves in everyway, and we do hope by improving ourselves, we can then help others.

SIXTH GRADE SECTION 6G

Mrs. B. B. Green, Teacher

In the 6th grade class there are 18 boys and 21 girls. Our teacher is Mrs. B. B. Green. We have organized our class so that we may do good work.

Our class officers are as follows:

President, Gloria Burton; Vice President, Jacquelyn Hunt; Secretary, Barbara Anderson; Treasurer, Rosa Allen.

The clubs have organized their officers too. We have a Science Club, A Hobby Club, and a Reading Club.

Lexie Terry is chairman of the Hobby Club, Elijah Strater is president of the Science Club and Annie Powell is president of the Reading Club.

We have planned a number of activities which we are sure we shall enjoy doing with the help of the teacher.

We shall tell more about our work the next time.

SIXTH GRADE SECTION 6R

Mrs. B. B. Redding, Teacher

Our class is most interesting and we are delighted with our Language Arts activities. Just now in Language Arts we are writing our presentation to be made in assembly. In Health, we have found the average income for the families of our class and we are planning low cost means based on the Seven Basic Food Groups. This nutrition business surely is important;

We surprised Mrs. Redding with a birthday party, November 7, and we also gave her some very nice gift. We had a great time! Mr. J. H. Lucas had a birthday the same day and we sent him a card with pipes and bedroom shoes and all.

Our class officers are:
President, Ronald Gregory;
Vice-President, Brenda Anderson; Secretary, Gerlena Green;

Assistant Secretary, Annie Paschall; Treasurer, Mabel Hicks.
