"CAROMOUNT NEWS FOR SERVICE MEN & WOMEN"

Sidney Blumenthal & Co., Inc.

VOL. 1

Rocky Mount, N. C. October, 1943

NO. 10

A CHALLENGE

At Present, as you well know, the Army, Navy, or Marines take care of your physical well being. What about your thoughts and ideas? Are they Are they dynamic? Below is a selected quotation;

"Ideas Preserve Youth".

Are you still young? "There are today many men not yet out of their will never have a new idea as long as they live.

Whose minds are elastic enough to stretch to new notions. They may have and it is lack of ideas not lack of hairs that makes any man old. Those still ready to learn, still willing to admit that they do not know, eager joy of living belies the physical signs of age. The others, who shy and new ideas as a horse shies from a shadow, are gray-beards at thirty ancients at forty.

VISITORS FROM THE UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES

JAMES W. EDVARDS: Cpl. Edwards, home on a twenty day furlough, visited temporarily. He will return to Camp Butner, W. C. where he will be stationed a secretly. He well deserved his furlough fellows for he came directly from bulled time" in the following camps; Camp Jackson, S. C., Fort Benning, Ga., sight and La. (Maneuvers), Fort Snelling, Minn. He has spent two years and soil before war was declared. When asked how he liked the Army, Cpl. Edwards are us this answer, "Could be better and could be worse, but I prefer over he this message, "Keep your chin up for when you get back to the States it all you to visit us again soon.

Rehas done very well for himself----Made Pfc. Dec., 1941, Cpl. April, 1942, June, 1942, Staff Sgt. July, 1942, and married the former Marjorie Denton