THE COVER:

The cover for this issue was drawn by Margaret Cockrell-Peggy, the cute little "Red Head" in the Laboratory. Tennyson's often quoted line inspired the theme of the drawing. "In spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love"!!! We think Peggy has done a swell job! Don't you? A swell job with the drawing--and with a certain young man's fancy also. Thanks and congratulations to Peggy.

SELECTED QUOTATIONS

Think on these things for as a man thinketh in his heart so is he.

The men who try to do something and fail are infinitely better than those who try to do nothing and succeed.--Lloyd Jones.

If it wasn't for faith, there would be no living in this world. We couldn't even eat hash with any safety if it wasn't for faith.--Josh Billings.

When you are right you can afford to keep your temper; when you are wrong you can't afford to lose it.--E. M. Statler.

The best men are not those who have waited for chances, but who have taken them, besieged the chance, conquered the chance, and made the chance their servitor.--Selected.

STAFF SERGEANT ALBERT P. ROYLE AWARDED AIR MEDAL

We quote below an article which appeared in the New Haven Register, New Haven, Connecticut.

"AWARD OF THE AIR MEDAL TO STAFF SERGEANT ALBERT P. ROYLE OF 1086 WHITNEY AVENUE WAS ANNOUNCED RECENTLY SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND. THE CITATION WAS FOR "EXCEPTIONALLY MERITORIOUS ACHIEVEMENT WHILE PARTICIPATING IN COMBAT MISSIONS OVER ENEMY OCCUPIED CONTINENTAL EUROPE." THE HUSBAND OF MRS. JOSEPHINE D. ROYLE, STAFF SERGEANT ROYLE, PRIOR TO THE WAR WAS A CHEMIST IN THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY. HE IS NOW A WAIST GUNNER ON A LIBERATOR BASED IN ENGLAND."

Congratulations to Al Royle. We knew that his fine record would surely come to our attention although he has modestly failed to mention this achievement to us. Best of luck and kindest regards from Caromount to S/Sgt. Royle.
