

Here is what Walter Winchell says about the 7th War Loan drive, "The Japs started it on the seventh at Pearl Harbor so let's finish it with the Seventh War Loan Drive in Japan". It is up to all of us to do our part.

SCOOP FROM FINAL EXAMINING

By- Inez Dawes

The Final Examining Department enjoyed a chicken supper which was held at Lynda Bone's house on a recent Saturday night. Mrs. Bone has terminated her work with us. She is farming now. Everybody had a very good time - but we are still wondering who can eat the most chicken, Graham Faulkner or James Modlin.

Norman McKinnon has been parking his car at the loading platform lately. The other day Flodie Outlaw drove the truck beside the car. The shipping department got ashamed of Mr. McKinnon's car so they cleaned and simonized it. Now Mr. McKinnon has to stay on the highways and cannot get on any dirt roads.

Edmond Creekmore came in to see us a little while recently. He is looking fine. Edmond, we wish you the best of luck wherever you may go.

If Walter Greenman can play baseball as well as he can yell "racks", Mr. Greenman's team will occupy top position all the summer.

NEWS FROM SCOUT TROOP 113

By- Perry English, Scoutmaster

Our boy scouts had a wonderful time at the Camporee held in Battle Park May 18, 19 and 20. This was the first camporee for Troop 113, but they brought home some red ribbons. Their preparation and participation in this scouting activity added a great deal to their scouting experience. Troop 113 also had a part in the National Scrap Paper Collection of March and April. Some of our boys went over the top, collecting 1000 pounds or more of scrap paper. We want you who are in service to know that we are doing our best as scouts to speed the day when war shall cease and peace shall be brought to the nations of the earth and we all will share the joys of home once more.

NOTES FROM THE ORCHESTRA SOUR AND OTHERWISE

Bootigo Taylor decided he was making slow progress with his correspondence course on how to blow a trombone and has now hired a teacher to speed things along. Nice going "Bootigo".

Due to popular demand, the orchestra in conjunction with the Caromount Athletic Association's Boy Scout Troop 113 are presenting the show "THESE TIMES". It is to be held at the Wilkinson School Auditorium, Thursday, June 14, 8:00 P. M.

From all recent reports J. T. Bppes is progressing rapidly on the piano accordion.
