Warping Dept Reports

Aubrey Frye was among the throngs of people who witnessed the arrival of President Truman by airplane at Cherry Point this month when he was en route to New Bern to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Allen and son recently spent the weekend in Durham visiting Mrs. Allen's brother and his family. They attended worship services in the Duke Chapel on the Sunday they were there. Herman said that this was 'most inspiring.

YMCA Memberships

Sidney Blumenthal and Co., Inc. realizing the importance of the Y. M. C. A. to our community and our youth, again subscribed to ten Y. M. C. A. memberships during the recent drives held in Rocky Mount.

A letter has been received from J. A. Harper, General Secretary of the Rocky Mount Y. M. C. A., thanking the Company for their interest and support and listing the names of boys to whom the memberships were assigned.

Herman Atkins, Jr., Marvin Braswell, Billy Evans, J. D. Ezelle, Jerry Frye, Randolph Ingram, Robert Lindsey, Gene Rose, Cecil Joyner, and Bobby Jackson received memberships.

All of the above boys are sons of Caromount employees.

crowd stumble in climbing a short stairway. As the next lady moved up, the boy said: "Watch your step." She passed up with safety. As we approach the year's end and Christmas, all of us need to watch our step. The words of that little boy suggest a second responsibility in watching. Others profit by our watching, God makes us our brothers' keepers. "No man liveth unto himself."

There is an inspiration that comes from watching. Bruce of Scotland had fought and lost six battles. As he reclined in his tent and brooded over his defeats, a spider holding by its silken web, climbed toward the ceiling. Six times the spider made the effort and fell to the floor, the seventh effort was successful. Bruce was moved to try again and the seventh battle culminated in his greatest triumph.

In every realm of human experience, inspiration comes as we stand upon our watch. It is great to be a sentinel, whether we stand alone or with the crowd.

Smile

A SMILE costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who give. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it, and none so poor but that he can be made rich by it.

A SMILE creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature's best antidote for trouble.

Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed or stolen, for it is given away. Some people are too tired to give you a smile. Give them one of yours, as none needs a smile so much as he who has no more to give.
