

Charlie Laughridge, Plant Engineer, Professor Whittier, and Randolph Sutton, Superintendent of Weaving, examine the first cut of cloth woven on the plush loom which was recently reconditioned and set up at N. C. State College by Caromount employes.

With the job nearing completion the staff of the Department of Fabric Development of the Textile School of N. C. State College got together for a picture with E. I. Raper and Floyd Hedgepeth of Caromount. Pictured left to right: Staff members Witmer, Parker, Raper, of Caromount; Professor B. L. Whittier, Head of the Department; Instructor Moser; Hedgepeth of Caromount and Instructor Porter.

Dyeing and Finishing

Miss Ertie Edwards was out for a few days due to sickness and death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alfred Edwards of Nashville. Our deepest sympathy goes to her and to her family.

Visits Durham Gardens

Mrs. Estelle Driver and her daughter visited the Duke Gardens in Durham on May 15.

Trip To Kentucky

Misses Lena and Pauline Sellers are planning a trip to Kentucky during their vacation. They are going to visit their brother.

Fishing Trip

Billy Marsh, Jessie Lewis, Co-field Edwards, G. T. Peele, and Charlie Lewis went fishing at Scotland Neck recently. Their catch was 8 small prim and jacks.

Correspondence Course

Dossie Bunn is taking a course in Textiles from International Correspondence School. This course will cover the whole works from the yarn through weaving, designing, etc.

Son On Visit

First Class Machinist Mate Ernest Strickland, son of Larry Strickland, recently spent two weeks with his family.

The House That Roscoe Built

Roscoe Dawes is building his own house, and by himself. It is located in the Broadway section of South Church Street, one block west. Roscoe and his wife, Mrs. Inez Dawes (Final Examining) moved in the house in October; but Roscoe has been working on it ever since. He has two more porches to put on the house before it reaches completion.

Changes Businesses

Earl Ingram has decided to give up his white rabbit and guinea pig business and is going to start raising chickens. He says the other fellows seem to be doing alright with chickens.

Lady Luck

Lady Luck has been visiting in the Dyehouse. Walter Harrison won the $8.00 baseball pool—(It only replaced though what he lost on the dog races the week end before).

Wilson News

Visiting in Baltimore

Mrs. Mary Privette has gone to spend a few days with relatives in Baltimore, Maryland.

Visitors

Mrs. Nell Rose Kulick, husband and son from Clifton, N. J., are spending two weeks with Mrs. Mae Dickerson in Wilson.

1949 Graduates

Shown here is Miss Joyce Thomas, 18 year old daughter of Mrs. Nola Thomas and Jasper Lee Thomas (Weaving). Joyce graduated from West Edgecombe High School May 25, 1949.

She was also a member of the Journalism Club and Glee Club. Joyce was Sports Editor of the West Edgecombe Annual.

Miss Joyce Proctor, daughter of Mrs. Agnes Proctor of the Warping Department, recently graduated from Edgemont School. Joyce is a member of Senior Scout Troop 12. She said that in school her favorite sport was football.

Weaveshed News

Back At Work

Eddie Wright Denton is back at work now, we are happy to report after an operation.

New Fisherec

Since the fisherec at the City Lake opened, some of those at Caromount who have been out their taking their children fishing are: Luther Pate, Sidney Collier, James Ezzelle, and Gus Riley. A good many of the other fellows are wishing that they had boys between the ages of 8 and 15 years.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mrs. Elsie Young in the death of

Safety Scoreboard

Dept.	Medical Cases	Lost Time Accidents
Warping	0	0
Raw Goods & Mending	1	0
Weaving	11	5
Engineering	8	1
Office	0	0
Receiving	0	0
Dyehouse	3	0
Finishing	1	0
Final Examining	1	0
Shipping	2	2
Wilson	0	0

Think Safety!!

her sister this month, Mrs. Mamie Strickland.

Liberal To Reserves

(Continued from Page One)

ed in the active duty orders) for the purpose of training.

2. The company will make up the difference between the pay received while on training and the pay for 2 normal work weeks computed on the basis of the hourly rate or base salary

3. The employee will still be entitled to his regular vacation period with pay.

4. Should an employee wish to remain away from work for these purposes beyond this period he may request a formal leave of absence to cover this period, but no additional pay allowance will be made for such extended absence.