

Although crippled since birth, James Ezzelle didn't miss the fun of Rocky Mounts's fishree. Here he shows Emma Lyfn Bass a fish he landed from his chair. James is the twelve year old son of Mrs. Ruby Ezelle and James Ezzelle (Weaveshed). The fish he is holding is a Bream which weighed about 1 pound.

DYEHOUSE

Charlie Griffin, Jr., is a new employee in the Dyehouse. His father, the Senior Charlie is also an employee there.

Lost And Found

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Garner (Dye-house) bought a new refrigerator during the vacation week. About the same time that the new article was delivered their dog disappeared. They all looked everywhere they could think of to find the dog; but in vain. Leon went to the refrigerator for a drink of water before renewing the search, and guess what he found? Smart dog, it's the only place to go in this kind of weather!

A Minor Scratch

It is important to report all accidents for first aid no matter how minor they seem to be at the time.

An employee in the Warping Department knows just how important this can be. While handling a yarn box this man received a tiny scratch on the wrist. It was hardly noticable and it was near the end of his shift so this man went on home and later applied an antiseptic to the wound.

The next morning he reported for work and noticing red streaks up and down his arm he reported to the first aid room. Indications were that blood-poisoning was near at hand. He was referred to the hospital where he was treated and put to bed for two days.

It is easy to see that first aid attention is important to prevent minor injuries from becoming major accidents.
