

Boy Scouts Enjoy Outdoor Sports At Camp Cooper

Reading left to right are Scouts Dickie Edmondson and Charlie Cuddington having a game of horse shoes at Camp Cooper. Charlie is the son of Mrs. Viola Cuddington and Luther Cuddington (Warping).

Back row left to right are Scouts Harvey English, Boots Hardy Mack English, Billy Wilhalf and Dickie Edmondson. In front is Dickie Carmicheal. The boys were caught in swimming at Camp Cooper on a recent trip.

Wilson Division Vacation News

Mr. and Mrs. Erby Powell and family spent their vacation at White Lake . . . Mrs. Marie Baker vacationed at Fayetteville with her sister and in Nashville with her mother-in-law . . . Mr. and Mrs. Cryres Whitley, their son, Mrs. Etta Daniels and son, Tommie, and Mrs. J. C. Lewis vacationed at Ocean View. While there Mrs. Daniels burned her hand while lighting the gas stove. . . Roy Overman visited his sister, Mrs. F. R. Harrelson in Newport News . . . Floyd Page vacationed at White Lake . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Privette went to Asheville and visited the mountains, Blowing Rock and Tennessee . . . James Hamm and family visited his sister, Mrs. Jim Sandifer in Portsmouth . . . Mrs. Hazel Brown and daughter, Yvonne, spent some time in Baltimore and Ocean View . . . Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dickerson and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Newcomb went to Niagra Falls and Canada . . . Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson and some friends vacationed at Ocean View . . . Mrs. Cornelia Langley spent a few days with her mother in Roxboro . . . Mrs. Mary L. Hicks Whitley and family spent some time in Washington, D. C. . . Henry Stalling and friends vacationed at Carolina Beach . . . Mrs. Bertha Jones and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Williams in Norfolk and Ocean View . . . Mr. and Mrs. Garland Wells and children spent a few days at Ocean View . . . Carl Brown fished at Whites Pond . . . Ralph Dail and family motored through mountains in and around Asheville . . . Those who enjoyed a good rest at home during vacation were Alvin Bone, Marvin

Langley, Mrs. Clarice Jones, Henry Mercer, Leslie Skinner, Mrs. Frances Williams, Mrs. Daisy Hinnant, Mrs. Annie Dildy, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stith, George Bradbury, Martin Raper and George Boyette. Mrs. Evelyn Rowe visited White Lake . . . Mrs. Hazel Boykin and husband left their children at home and took a belated honeymoon to Washington, D. C., and Baltimore . . . Mrs. Bertha Williams and family visited White Lake and Richmond . . . Mrs. Polly Davis and husband bought a new car and vacationed at Morehead City, Clinton and Faison . . . Misses Louise Speight, Roma Lee and Magdaline Watson traveled to White Lake. . . William Godwin caught up on the ball games while enjoying a week of rest . . . Mrs. Nellie Howard and family enjoyed Virginia Beach . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ward and family visited Norfolk and White Lake . . . Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bryant vacationed at Ocean View . . . Luther Lamm and his wife spent the week in New York City sleeping on the 21st floor . . . Rastie Ferrell and wife visited Charlotte and White Lake . . . Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson rested at Ocean View . . . Mrs. Juanita Mattox and family spent the week at Carolina Beach . . . Bennie Edwards and wife visited White Lake . . . Mr. and Mrs. James Amerson and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Briley visited Newport News . . . Mr. Ed Jones, his son, and his mother, Mrs. Bessel Jones, traveled to Bluefield, West Va. . . Bill Wilson said that he enjoyed his vacation just taking it easy around home. . . .

Raw Goods And Mending

Mr. and Mrs. Knox Ellis and family and some friends went to Newton, N. C., where others joined their party to tour western North Carolina. They visited many places in Tennessee, the Indian Reservation, Fontana Dam, and other places of interest on the Skyline Drive from the top of Mount Mitchell to fishing in some of the lakes. . . Mrs. Alma Lancaster visited Carolina and Wrightsville Beaches and was joined by Mrs. Tellie Coley for a trip to the pageant at Williamsburg. From there they went to Newport News and Ocean View. Mrs. Eva Collie spent her vacation in Hamlet, West Virginia with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lancaster. Her granddaughter, Sharron, returned home with her. . . Misses Gladys Smith and Ruby Ezzell toured Washington City, Luray Caverns and other places along the Skyline Drive. . . Mr. and Mrs. George McLamb and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rogers visited Washington, D.C., and took the government tour of the city to the mint, the capitol, Mount Vernon house and gardens, and also the Luray Caverns and other places on the Skyline Drive. . . Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Worrell spent their vacation in the Smoky Mountains visiting Mount Mitchell, Asheville, and other places. Miss Zettie Walker went with friends to White Lake and Gaylord Lake where they caught 113 fish. . . Mr. and Mrs. Hassell Brantley traveled to Bluefield, West Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Walker spent the week at Tampa and St. Petersburg, Florida with relatives and enjoying the beaches. . . Mrs. Lucille Waddell had a grand va-

Engineering

Bill Williams, Billy Williams, Sylvester Smith and Wesley Smith took the Air Scout Troop fishing at Minnisot Beach. They caught plenty of fish and cooked them for their meals along with some steaks, too. . . Kinchen Joyner went deep sea fishing at Sneed's Ferry and caught 118 pounds; but Kinchen said that he really was sick. . . A. J. English stayed at home to rest. . . Charlie Laughridge and family vacationed in the mountains. . . Marvin Perry said he rested up at home. . . Floyd Hedgepeth and Milford Harrison went to Carolina Beach and Morehead City fishing. Frank Cockrell said that he went to Carolina Beach and had a nice rest. . . David Riley and family toured western N.C., through Asheville, Blowing Rock and the Cherokee Village. . . Alton Campbell visited Morehead City and Ocean View. Bootigoat Taylor and family went to Bethel fishing. His wife was taken sick and he had to take her to the Tarboro hospital. . . Charles Sego went to Georgia to visit his sick uncle. . . H. T. Simmons vacationed in Greensboro and at Pamlico. . . Doc Lancaster, Fred Sessoms and Herman Roberson went fishing at Pamlico. . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trevathan visited Asheville, climbed Chimney Rock and drove through the surrounding mountains. . . cation sight-seeing along the Skyline Drive. . . Mrs. Theresla Perdue went to see "The Lost Colony" and visited beaches along the Carolina Coast. . . Mrs. Gertrude Rowe vacationed with friends at White Lake. . . Mrs. Claudie Doughtie visited her brother.