

Little Miss Claudette Joyner is the six-year old daughter of Lee Robert Joyner (Weaving). King, her pet Collie dog, was a Christmas present last year; and Bob, the pony, is her 1949 Christmas present. Claudette is very fond and very proud of her pets.

Wilson Division

Visit In Clayton

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Davis and daughter, Sylvia Ann, visited Mrs. E. F. Homes in Clayton during Thanksgiving. Mrs. Davis is a Wilson Division weaver.

Guests

Mrs. Eunice Allen (Wilson) had as her guest Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Price of Washington, D. C.

Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ward (Wilson) had as visitors for a recent weekend, Mr. and Mrs. David Reasons and daughter, Myrtle, of Smithfield.

Improving

We are glad to report that Rastie Ferrell (Wilson) is getting along fine after being confined to the hospital with arthritis.

Visits In Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Thompson visited relatives in Washington, D. C., during Thanksgiving.

At Morehead

J. B. Bryant, 2nd shift, spent a week end at Morehead City fishing with friends.

No Luck

William Godwin and friends

Suessmuth Reelected

E. H. Suessmuth, resident manager of Sidney Blumenthal and Co. Inc., was unanimously re-elected president of the Wilson Chamber of Commerce for another year at the annual meeting of the organization board of directors at the Cherry Hotel in Wilson, November 29.

This was the third time in the history of the Wilson Chamber that a president has succeeded himself.

visited Hoboken, N. C., recently. While there they did right much fishing.

New Car

Theolpius Barnes is the proud owner of a new Chevrolet and likes it fine.

On Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones have recently returned from their vacation. They said they enjoyed the rest very much and had a grand time.

In Shelton

Frank Lovshin, who is doing some work in Wilson at present, went to his home in Shelton, Connecticut for the Thanksgiving Holidays.

Personals

To Raleigh

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Robinson (Dyehouse) went to Raleigh recently on a shopping tour.

Eighth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Dickens (Dyehouse) celebrated their eighth Wedding Anniversary November 22, 1949.

Tonsilectomy

Little Miss Doris Griffin, nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Griffin (Dyehouse) had her tonsils removed recently.

New Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Parker (Dyehouse) have recently moved to Langley's Crossroads.

One Year

Mrs. Vivian Hodges (Dyehouse) and her husband celebrated their First Wedding Anniversary on December 4, 1949.

Out Sick

Willie H. Hare has been out sick for about a month. We wish for him a speedy recovery and hope he will soon be back at work.

Improving

Mrs. Rachel Hollingsworth (Weaving) is steadily improving at her home. Mrs. Hollingsworth has been out for some time due to an accident.

Out Sick

George Butler (Finishing) has been out sick recently.

Visited In Raleigh

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Walker (Mending), Sidney's mother, Mrs. Harry Walker, and Mrs. Janna Gupton (Mending) went to Raleigh where they visited "Tom's House."

Weaving Dept

Robert Pittman and Richard Brown recently completed a week of Jury Duty in Nashville Superior Court.

Good Catch

Clyde Evans caught three nice Jack fish at Gardner's Creek recently. He said that the water was just right, but the weather was cold.

New Car

Reynolds Kennedy now has a new 1950 Maroon Ford. It is a pretty thing.

Poor Fishing

H. J. Ezzelle went fishing at Gardner's Creek recently; but he did not have much luck!

Auto Gas Poisoning

Norman Richardson (Weaving) suffered from an attack of Auto Gas Poisoning recently. This was the after effects of riding in a closed car with the heater on for a long period of time. Norman was given a shot to counteract the poisoning.

Visits Camp Butner

Mrs. Theresla Perdue (Mending) and her family spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Camp Butner.

Shopping In Richmond

Mrs. Alma Lancaster, Mrs. Tellie Coley (Mending) and Miss Jane Coley (Shipping) spent a recent week end in Richmond shopping.

Visited Mother

Mrs. Annie Woodard (Mending) visited her mother, Mrs. R. R. Allen in Conway for a week end.

The First Shift Mending Department gathered November 11 to honor Mrs. Alma Lancaster at a surprise birthday party at the Caromount Field House. Coca Colas, nuts, cakes, candies and ice cream were served. Afterwards Mrs. Lancaster opened many lovely and useful gifts. Miss Susie Peaden whose birthday occurred on November 15 was also remembered with gifts. Miss Peaden was completely surprised since she thought that the party was altogether for Mrs. Lancaster.

Twenty-four people were present. Some of them are shown in the above picture, as Mrs. Lancaster prepared to cut the cake. They are (l. to r.): Mrs. Annie Conway, Mrs. Lucille Waddell, Doc Lancaster (Engineering), husband of Mrs. Lancaster; Mrs. Gertrude Rowe, Mrs. Violet Walker, and Sidney Walker. (Photo by Eppes).