

1700 Enjoy Picnic And Outing At Caromount Park

(1) The Caromount Scout Cabin where some 200 articles were exhibited by the women employees of Caromount and Wilson. These included their own handiwork, clothing, garden produce, fresh fruits, canned vegetables, preserves, pickles, cake, pies, flowers, plants and rare and unusual collections. (2) The crowd lined up for a barbecue dinner served by Buck Overton and delicious Brunswick Stew prepared by Dave Riley and Roscoe Dawes. (3) The beauty pageant for tots proved to be one of the most popular features of the day. 65 contestants were registered and the contest was broken down into four classes. In this picture are shown the older tots in the 4 - 6 years girls group, Sandra Shelton, the daughter of Frank Shelton (Weaving) was winner in this group. Beck Edwards, the daughter of Wahab Edwards (Office), was runner-up. (4) There were only three boys in the 4-6 years group, and their dads proudly posed with them. Reading left to right: Mose Ezzell (Engineering) with his own son, Pat; Paul Langley (Weaving) and his son, Danny; and Roscoe Langley (Finishing) with Steve. (5) Mrs. Mavis Parker, long time Finishing Department employee got together her children for a picture of one of the largest family groups present for the day. (6) The tots from ages 2 - 4 years really came out in numbers. 13 girls are shown in the above picture. Connie Perdue, the daughter of Mrs. Mary Perdue (Weaving) and Carolyn Clark, the daughter of Herbert and Mrs. Lina Clark (Weaving) were winners in this classification. (7) The young gentlemen, ages 2 - 4 years were also on hand. Hugh Shearin, the son of Mrs. June Shearin (Shipping) and Thomas Shepard, the son of Mrs. Essie Shepard (Weaving) took top honors in this division. (8) The exhibits of the women jammed the interior of the Scout Cabin but the men took to the porch and set up a fancy array of displays ranging from toothpick holders to a fully equipped motor boat.
