

Wilson News

Moves To Town

Mrs. Roy Baker has moved from the country into town. She will reside on Benton Street.

New Home

Mrs. Marie Winstead and her husband have bought a new home on Broughton Street.

Weekend Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Thompson had as their guests over a recent weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McVeigh and Major John Bloom.

New Home

Floyd Page has moved into his new home on Churchill Avenue.

Iredell Davis (Shorty) has moved into a new home in Avalon Park.

Sickness

Mrs. Cleo Johnson has been out for some time due to an illness.

In Greensboro

Mr. and Mrs. William Sutton spent a recent weekend in Greensboro visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Sutton.

Touring Virginia

Mrs. Daisy Hinnant and children spent a recent Sunday touring places of interest in Virginia.

Visits Husband

Mrs. Magdaline Vaughn spent a weekend in Greenville, S. C., visiting her husband, Sergeant Frank Vaughn, who is stationed with the United States Army Air Force.

Back In School

Little Miss Barbara Jean Williams, who underwent an appendectomy recently, has recovered nicely and is back at school. She is the daughter of Mrs. Bertha Williams, second shift weaver.

In Belhaven

Miss Gladys Barnes was the guest of Mrs. Viola Jarvis of Belhaven for a weekend.

Most Studious

Miss Meta Pearl Allen, senior at the Charles L. Coon High School, was elected the most studious member of the senior class. She is the daughter of Mrs. Eunice Allen, second shift weaver.

Head Cheer Leader

Charles Poston, a freshman of Charles L. Coon High School, was elected Junior Cheer Leader. Charles is the son of Mrs. Mildred Poston, third shift weaver.

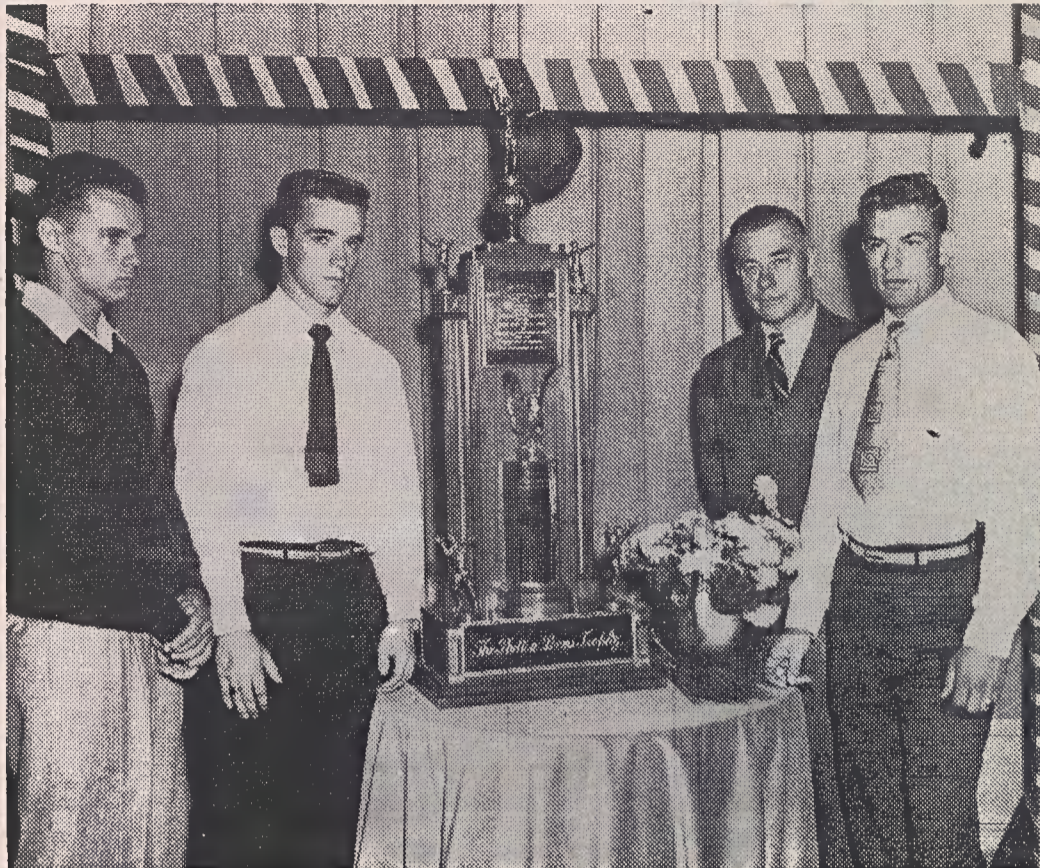

Visit Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Faucette spent a weekend visiting relatives in Wilmington and Topsail Beach.

Lost And Found

Millard Leonard, Bennie Edwards, William Godwin, Oscar Bailey and Tiny Sutton went hunting. When they got to the woods, they separated. Tiny spent his time (two and a half hours) walking up and down the highway hunting the car.

Trophy Is Used In Good Sports Program

On the eve of the big football game between Rocky Mount and Wilson, the rival captains got together for a final look at the Shelton Looms Trophy before the contest on November 3rd. In the picture are left to right: Billy Holdford, Wilson Co-captain; Bill Phillips, Rocky Mount Captain; Resident Manager E. H. Suessmuth of the Caromount and Wilson Divisions of Sidney Blumenthal and Co., Inc.; and Bud Etheridge, Wilson Co-captain. The above picture was made during the program sponsored by the Good Sports Club which makes an annual goodwill tour between the Charles L. Coon High school of Wilson and the Rocky Mount High school. Mr. Suessmuth appeared on the program at both schools. The Wilson school has kept the trophy for the past two years; however, Rocky Mount High school will possess it for the next year as a result of their 33-0 victory. (Photo—Killebrew)

Shipping News

Halloween

It seems that most everyone in the department had a nice time celebrating Halloween. Mrs. Marie Weaver went to the party at Wilkinson School and paid a nickel to walk the cake line, and won a devil food cake. Mrs. Jean Hodges and Miss Mary Alice Trevathan went to a party and Jean spent all her money playing Bingo, but she didn't have any luck. Clifton Weaver took his little girl down town to see the parade.

Happy Birthday

Morris Williams celebrated his birthday on November 5th. Many happy returns of the day, Morris!

Hunting

Julian Whitehurst went hunting the other Saturday and got two deer; but he is only credited with actually killing one. Someone had wounded one and he caught it and cut its throat. He did shoot the second one. Guess his family will have plenty of deer meat on hand for the winter.

Entertains

Mrs. Audrey Sowers entertained at a weiner roast at the Riverside Park on October 14 honoring her husband, Ed, on his birthday. The party was enjoyed by several members of the Shipping Department and other friends and relatives.

First Time Up

Miss Ora Lee Ward spent a recent weekend visiting friends in Norfolk. While there she attended the Barnum and Bailey Circus and took a short trip in an airplane, her first airplane ride. The plane belonged to a friend who took her up.

ment and other friends and relatives.

Visiting Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sowers spent the weekend in Thomasville recently visiting Ed's family.

Lucky Girl

Miss Mary Alice Trevathan, who was recently employed in the Shipping Office, is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Trevathan, plant nurse. Mary Alice has hit it lucky twice lately. She has won two diamonds from the Jewel Box in their contest for answering the name of a song. She had one set in a pretty dinner ring and the other she gave to her aunt, Miss Phoebe Trevathan (Final Examining).

Moved

Mrs. June Shearin and her husband, Hugh, have moved to the corner of Ridge and Bellview, and so far they like it fine. They have been cleaning and painting windows, etc.

Bruce Mercer Pridgen

Final rites were held in the Five Points Baptist Church of Wilson, North Carolina at 2:30 o'clock, November 7, 1950 for Mrs. Bruce Mercer Pridgen, age 34, who died suddenly November 5, in a Wilson hospital after a brief illness.

The Rev. E. E. Ulrich was minister in charge and the burial followed at the Maplewood cemetery.

Mrs. Pridgen was born in Wilson, N. C., the daughter of the late Mrs. Effie High Mercer and William Edward Mercer. She is survived by her husband, William Ernest Pridgen and three daughters, Effie, age 12; Anne, age 7; and Dorothy Lou, age 1. Her brother, Henry T. Mercer is employed at the Wilson Division.

Mrs. Pridgen came to work at the Wilson Division as a weaver in 1942 and she had worked here since that time, until her death. She was an outstanding worker; and she was well liked and highly respected by all the employees at the Wilson Division.

Safety Scoreboard

The first column shows the number of accidents requiring medical attention and the second, the number of lost time accidents since July 1, 1950.

Warping	0	0
Weaving	8	0
Raw Goods and Mending ..	1	0
Engineering	2	0
Office	0	0
Receiving	0	0
Dyehouse	2	0
Finishing	0	0
Final Examining	0	0
Shipping	2	0
Wilson	0	1

The safety record continues to be good for the second half of the year except for a series of minor injuries. It is important to remember that where minor accidents occur a major injury may develop.

It's better to be safe than sorry!

Attends Seminar

(Continued from Page One)

authors Fred G. Clark and Richard Stanton Rimonoczy.

Those supervisors participating in the two lecture courses are D. W. Adams, Walter Greenman, George Harper, Randolph Sutton, Cecil Lewis, E. H. Sullivan, John Sterkin, Clayton Hedgepeth, Bill Spruill, James Speight, Bill Rotters, Stephen Bennett, Frank Brock, Charlie Laughridge, Oscar Satterfield, Quillen Ward, Knox Ellis, Will Young, and E. H. Suessmuth, of Caromount.