To The Country

Theolpius Barnes has given up city life for the country this year. Everyone at the Wilson Plant is looking ahead to getting plenty of eggs, chickens and garden produce in the spring.

What Luck!

Some people are lucky. Mrs. Louise Rhew won the Moose Club Bingo Jackpot of $175.00 just two days before Christmas.

Out Of Work

Mrs. Viola Walston was out for a week due to infected feet.

Christmas Guests

Mrs. Katherine Riley had several visitors during the Christmas holidays. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Anthony, Jr., of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hawkins of Norfolk, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Riley of Warrenton.

Has Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Newcombe, and daughter, Ann, of Kinston spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Newcombe's mother, Mrs. Mae Dickerson.

Word Of Welcome

The entire Wilson Division wishes to welcome Calvin Jones back to work. He has been out sick for the past several weeks.

New Grandbabies

Mrs. Theresla Perdue has another grandbaby, William Gregory Perdue, born December 19, 1950 to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Perdue, weight 10 pounds, 10½ ounces.

Mrs. Rosa Vester has another grandson, John Wayne Vester, born December 10, 1950 to Mr. and Mrs. Julian Vester. They have two other children, Barby and Becky. Julian Vester is a former employee of the Shipping Department.

Visiting In Va.

Mrs. Theresla Perdue's mother, Mrs. Baines, is spending some time in Bowling Green, Va., visiting Herbert Marshall and family. Herbert is in the service, and is a former Caromount employee.

Home Gathering

All of Mrs. Rosa Vester's children gathered at her home during Christmas. She said they had a wonderful time.

Sickness At Home

Mrs. Ruth Reid was out for some time nursing Mr. Reid. He underwent an operation at Rex Hospital in Raleigh, and he has been sick at home since that time. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Moved

Mrs. Nina Rogers has moved to

920 Sunset Avenue. Recently she attended the Ice Follies in Raleigh. She said they were wonderful.

New Grandpa

Knox Ellis is a Grandpa for the first time. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Maxwell of Clifton, N. J., have a little son, Thomas Marion Maxwell, III, born December 22, 1950 in Clifton. Mrs. Maxwell was Miss Shirley Ellis before her marriage, and also a former Caromount employee. Knox says that he can vouch that the baby has strong lungs because he heard him cry over the telephone.

Sick

Red Sessoms was taken sick on Christmas Day, and had to miss a few days from work.

Gone To Farm

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Luper have moved back to the farm and are hoping to do some farming this year on the side. It will be hard work for them but they have bought a tractor and other tools to lighten the labors.

New Home

Mrs. Ava Brock and Frank Brock (Finishing) have bought a home on Rosewood Avenue, and recently moved in. Congratulations to you both.

Proud Egg Man

Poultryman extraordinary is a claim that can be justly made by Herman Atkins (Weaver).

Herman has a small flock of New Hampshire pullets he keeps to provide eggs for family use.

The pullets are doing so well that he can now feel free to boast about them. They are producing eggs that weigh up to five ounces and which measure 3½ inches in length. To back up his claim Herman brought some samples around and they were really beauties.

Chosen Class Officer

The Sophomore Class of Charles L. Coon High School elected new officers to head the class for the year 1950-51.

They are Richard Ward, president; Pete Thompson, Jr., vice president; Nancy Gill, secretary; and Joe Ellis, treasurer.

Pete Thompson, Jr., is the son of Pete Thompson of the Wilson Division.

Anyone having questions about their insurance should contact the Personnel Office. It is also necessary that the Personnel Office be notified when an employee becomes married or any change in dependency occurs

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker Celebrate Their 35th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker celebrated their 35th Wedding Anniversary December 26, 1950. Harry Walker drives the truck to Wilson, and Mrs. Lena B. Walker is employed in the Weaving Department. Harry is shown here on the left playing the banjo. He said, "when I was married I did not think I needed anything but my wife, so I got rid of the banjo; but now thirty-five years later, I reach back and see that I have to get my banjo again. The tune Harry is playing here is "Oh I Never See Maggie Alone."

On the right standing behind Mr. and Mrs. Walker are their children. Left to right they are: Mrs. Florine Bell of Spring Hope; Cleveland (Shipping Department); Raymond of Rocky Mount; and Sidney (Mending Department). Other members of the Walker family (not shown) who work at Caromount are Mrs. Cleveland "Lillie" Walker (Final Examining), and Mrs. Sidney "Violet" Walker (Mending). Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Walker!
