Weaveshed Party

On December 21, 1950, a group of the Weaveshed people gathered in the Field House for a delicious barbecued chicken supper served by Medie Lindsey. Later the group sang Christmas Carols, and danced with Mr. E. H. Suessmuth accompanying them at the piano. A very enjoyable time was had by those present: Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Medie Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. John Dickens, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Langley, Mr. and Mrs. George Harper, Quillen Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Harrison, Miss Johnnie Bell Harris, Mrs. Reid Satterfield, Mrs. Willis Batton, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Winbon, and E. H. Suessmuth.

Sick At Home

Eddie Wright Denton has been out sick for a long while now. We hope that he will soon get straight and come back to work. Mr. Denton lives at Lamm's Coffee Shoppe in South Rocky Mount, and would appreciate company at any time.

Sympathy Notes

We extend our deepest sympathy to Dave Nelms who lost his mother, Mrs. Maggie Nelms, January 11, 1951; and to Mrs. Nellie Robbins whose brother, Clifton Eason, died on January 11, 1951.

Come And Gone

Ole Santa Claus has come and gone and he made many people happy this year. Wrist watches, rings, new shirts, etc., were very much in evidence following the old boy's visit. Among the lucky ones was Owen Solmon. Santa brought him a new Shakespeare fibre glass fly rod. The neighbors say that it is dangerous to get within a hundred yards of his house these days.

Good Old Santa Claus

The first shift weaveshed drew names to exchange Christmas gifts and it turned out to be quite an enjoyable thing for everyone concerned. When all the gifts were wrapped and delivered to the foreman's office, a real Santa Claus was called in to distribute the presents. Everyone had a grand time, and John Amos Dail, dressed in his Santa Claus suit was perfect.

Tough Luck

Gus Riley had some tough luck recently. When he was helping a friend build a house he met with an accident and injured his hand pretty badly. He has been walking around with his hand in a cast ever since. We hope he will soon be alright.

Our Service Men

Gerald "Jerry" Richardson Frye, (above), left Caromount January 8, 1951 to enlist in the United States Army Air Force. He is stationed at San Antonio, Texas for training.

Jerry came to work at Caromount August 23, 1950 in the Warping Department as a material handler and was employed there until he joined the service. He is the son of Aubrey Green Frye (Warping) and Mrs. Mildred K. Frye (formerly of Warping).

Jerry's address is:

Herman B. Roberson (formerly in Engineering, now in the U. S. Army) has been moved from his original station in Korea to another town (name unknown) where he is guarding prisoners. Herman says they use the helmet for everything from something to eat from to a bath tub. He said he walked five miles one day to get a chance to take a shower. On the whole, life in Korea sounds pretty rough. They say the prisoners are mean and hard to handle.

There isn't much that we can do for an individual in the service; but we can always keep those letters going to them. If you haven't written to the boys you know in the service, do so now. Mail call is one of the bright spots in their life when they are far from home.
