

Five Sons of E. L. Ingram

Shown here are the five sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ingram. Mr. Ingram is employed in the Caromount Dyehouse. Standing (l to r) Arthur Ingram of Baltimore, Md; James Ingram, Rocky Mount; Bill Ingram, of the United States Army since August 4, 1948, stationed at Fort Dix, N. J. Stoooped are Henry Ingram, third shift Dyehouse employee; and Randolph Ingram of Rocky Mount. This was the first time in quite a while that Mr. and Mrs. Ingram had had all of their sons together at one time.

Weaveshed News

Third Shift Party

The third shift of the Weaveshed gave a little party December 23 in the canteen. The ladies drew names and gifts were exchanged. Lee Robert Joyner and Cliff Joyner received nice gifts from their employees, and everyone had a fine time.

New Employees

The third shift extends a welcome to the former employees who have recently come back to work with them.

Back At Work

Oscar Davis is back at work after a week in the hospital due to illness.

Twelfth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Rose celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary Monday, January 22, 1951.

Children Will Tell

Mrs. Alice Long says she has come to the conclusion that her trouble is old age. Her son, Bobby, was ten years old January 26. He was entertained at a birthday party with 15 of his schoolmates present. Bobby received many gifts. Children will tell of old age.

Moved

At last we are glad to hear the good news. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rowe have moved into their new home on Hammond Street. It is really a dandy.

Sympathy Notes

We extend our sympathy to

Little Cedric: "Oh, I don't know about that. Every time I go to a picnic they are all there."

Mrs. Mather was going away after a long visit.

"Do you remember what time my train leaves tomorrow, she asked her son-in-law.

"Sixteen hours, seventeen minutes, and thirty seconds from now, dear Mamma."

Father: "There's plenty of time for Bessie to think of getting married. Let her wait till the right man comes along."

Mother: "I don't see why she should wait that long. I didn't when I was her age."

Parson: "I am sorry to hear that your matrimonial troubles have begun so early; but you must remember that you took your bride for better or for worse."

Parishioner: "Yes, parson, but she's worse than I took her for." der of Red Men. Participants will be required to submit an essay of from 1000 to 1500 words on the subject "Our Constitution—Our Heritage".
