Breaking The Alabaster Box

Friends of Jesus had gathered in Bethany, in the house of Simon, the leper, for a feast. Among those present were Martha, Mary, their brother Lazarus, and doubtless other friends and followers of Jesus. Mary must have sensed that this would be her last chance to show her love for her Lord. She remembered she had been saving a cruse of costly perfume for some special event. The occasion was at hand and she brake the cruse and anomted Jesus. John 12:3. What a beautiful act!

The selfish, the self-seeking, the critical, the grumblers were on the job then as now. They said: "To what purpose has his waste of ointment been made? For this ointment might have been sold for above three hundred pence and given to the poor. And they murmured against her." Mark 14:4-5. Mary, stunned and shocked. but not for long for Jesus came to her rescue and said: "Let her alone, why trouble ye her? She hath wrought a good work on me." Mark 14:6. Then he reminded them that what she had done would be a lasting memorial to her wherever the gospel was preached.

Mary brake the alabaster box because she loved. In giving she imitated the Savior who gave himself for us. This same unselfish love and generous giving is needed in our day. Let each of us resolve to go forth today and render such timeless service, and to break our alabaster box—tomorrow may be too late.

Dyehouse News

Wrightsville Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bennett spent a recent weekend at Wrightsville Beach. Joyce came back with a good sun tan.

New Cars

Linear Hicks has a new Mercury, and Jack Rose has purchased a new Ford.

New Employee

William Carr is a new employee in the department this month.

Josh Joyner, Harvey Robinson-Jack Rose, and Linear Hicks went to Plymouth fishing on a recent weekend. Jack saw a snake and almost turned the boat over. In fact there is a doubt in every body's mind whether or not they really did much fishing. It seems that the spent more time eating fried chicken. In Wilmington

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bone spens a weekend in Wilmington visiting relatives.

Painting

Mark Dickens is painting his house, inside and out. Anybody wanting the services of an experienced interior decorator, see Mr. Dickens for an appointment.

Music Recital

Miss Mary Leigh Dickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lee Dickens, participated in a music recital on June first, sponsored by Mrs. O. K. Dozier. It is rumored that Mary Leigh is teaching Mark to play the piano.
