

Family Of Mr. And Mrs. Raleigh Evans

Pictured here is the family of Mrs. Edna Evans (Warping) and Raleigh Evans (Weaving). When asked why she and Raleigh were not in the picture, Mrs. Evans replied that there just wasn't room. Reading left to right they are: Elmer Gray Evans, age 13 years; Jackie Morris Evans, 14 years; Charles Malcolm Evans, 11 years; Billy Maydocke Evans, 15 years; Little Miss Fannie Evans, 8 years; and Little Miss Tempe Evans, 7 years.

A I L I N F U N

Frosh: Transfer, please.
 Conductor: Where to?
 Frosh: Can't tell ya. It's a surprise party.

“Can you keep a secret?”
 “Sure can.”
 “I need five bucks.”
 “It's as if ya never told me.”

Then there was the Scotchman who took his girl to the beach but wouldn't hire an umbrella because he knew a lot of shady stories.

Chinese: Lighthouse no good for fog. Lighthouse he shine, whistle he blow, fog-bell he ring—and fog he come in just the same.

Lady: How were you wounded, my good man?
 Sailor: By a shell, lady.
 Lady: Did it explode?
 Sailor: No, it crept up close and bit me.

Movie Actress: I'll endorse your cigarette for no less than $50,000.

Cigarette Manufacturer: I'll see you inhale first.

1st man (beside coat rack): Are you William H. Harris?

2nd man: No.

1st man: Well I am and that's his topcoat you're putting on.

“What are the chances of my recovery, doctor?” asked the bed-ridden man.

“One hundred per cent,” the physician reassured him. “Medical records show that nine out of ten die of the disease you have. Yours is the tenth case I've treated. Others died. Statistics are statistics. You're bound to get well.”

The teacher was trying to popularize arithmetic by bringing home examples to pupils.

Teacher: “Now, Junior, if you had $5 in one pocket and $7.50 in the other, what would you say you had?”

Junior: “The wrong pants.”

A Scotchman had been keeping vigil at the bedside of his dying wife for several days. One evening he said, “Mary, I must go out on important business but I will hurry back. Should you feel yourself slipping while I'm gone, please blow out the candle.”

A doctor was addressing his class. He said, “Liquor had killed more people. Staying out late has taken more lives. Smoking has taken more lives.” A pupil rose and interrupted him.

“Doctor, I'd like to ask you a question—what kills those people who live right?”

Trophy On Display

The Shelton Looms Trophy which will be presented to the winner of the Wilson-Rocky Mount football game November 9 in Wilson, is now on display in the J. C. Penny Store window on Main Street in Rocky Mount. It will be displayed in Bissette's Drug Store, No. 1, in Wilson, November 2 to November 8.

The trophy, more than four feet high, was given in 1948 by Sidney Blumenthal and Co. Inc. and will be presented to the winner of the Wilson-Rocky Mount game each year. The first team to win the annual football game ten times will become the permanent possessor of the trophy. Wilson had possession of the trophy for the past two years when they beat Rocky Mount 13-7 in 1948, and 14-6 in 1949. Rocky Mount took over the trophy in 1950 by virtue of their 33-0 victory over the Wilson Cyclones.

“A lot of people who are always itching for something never seem to get around to scratching for it!”

Near the end of an appraiser's return to the Probate Court appeared the following:

“One quart of Scotch whiskey.”
 The next item was:
 “One revolving Oriental rug.”

Mending Reports

Visiting Mother

Miss Joyce Kermon, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Retha Kermon for some time after completing her training at Riverside Hospital in Newport News, Va. She will report back to Riverside Hospital to do private duty until she takes the state board examination.

Entertain Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward of Miami, Florida spent some time as the guests of their sister, Mrs. Ruth Reid.

Visited Daughters

Mrs. Annie Woodard visited her daughters in Norfolk recently. They are Mrs. Dan Williams and Mrs. M. L. Etheridge. She enjoyed the television and also did some shopping.

Back At Work

Mrs. Maud T. Ward was out for one week with ptomaine poison but is glad to be back on the job now.

Out Sick

Mrs. Samatha McLamb has been out sick for some time and has been in the hospital for observation and treatment. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Home On Visit

Lonnie Gray Privett spent 15 days recently with his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Rowe. Lonnie Gray is with the United States Air Force at Breckenridge, Kentucky.

Visited Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor, and little daughter, Ginger, spent a couple of weeks recently visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Worrell of Route 2, Rocky Mount, and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Tarboro.

New Home Of The Luther Rowes

Above is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rowe (Weaving). It is located at 1625 Hammond Street. The Rowes moved into their new house January 16, 1951.