

People You Know

Bertis J. Morgan came to Caromount in May, 1942 and has been employed here since that date. He is at present a Roller Operator in the Final Examining Department.

Bertis is a native of Nash County, where he was born November 16, 1907, the son of Mrs. Zula Morgan and Jonah Bertis Morgan. He attended Nash County Schools and farmed most of the time before he came to work at Caromount.

On November 11, 1933 he was married to the former Miss Lessie Mae Taylor of Nash County. They have one daughter, Linda Faye, who is five years of age.

The Morgans own their home at Sandy Cross in Nash County. During his hours away from work Mr. Morgan helps his father-in-law run his farm.

His wife, Mrs. Lessie Morgan is employed in the Caromount Warping Department.

They attend the Taylor's Chapel Pentecostal Holiness church near their home.

9 Years No Absentee

Mrs. Pearl Green (Final Examining) completed her ninth year at Caromount with no absences from work, on October 15, 1951 establishing quite a record for herself. Mrs. Green said that she was very proud of her record, and was happy that her health was good enough to enable her to keep this record.

Life begins when a person first realizes how soon it ends.

Weaveshed News

After Squirrels

Dave Ezzell is going after the squirrels this fall. He recently purchased a rifle from Sears-Roebuck Co., and his friends say he has been popping cans off fences and posts in preparation for the coming season. Dave says he can get a squirrel right between the eyes.

Working At Home

Squire Sidney Collier has been doing a great deal of work around his new home lately. He was last seen discing the ground around the house. Looks like the boy is going to have a lawn next summer.

Hospitalized

Mrs. R. W. Tippet was recently hospitalized due to two broken ribs. We hope she will recover soon.

Were Their Faces Red

Wouldn't you know it! On Sunday, October the seventh, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. (Flick & Edith) Ezzell, motored to Norfolk with the idea of watching the World Series game on television and, Guess What? Game was postponed because of rain. Were their faces red?

Jury Duty

J. W. Kennedy and Luther Vester were called for Jury Duty in October at Nashville. W. T. Layton served for the September term.

Good Catch

Hubert Sutton and Gus Riley had a good catch down at Cashey fishing the other day. They caught 26 nice speckled perch and one chub.

Bowling Teams

The Weaveshed boys on the first shift have organized two bowling teams to bowl each other every Monday night. So far they have had some keen competition and some nice times. Those bowling are: Herman Ezzell, Ray Bass, Clyde Evans, Ralph Morris, Wilbur Williams, H. J. Ezzell, Hubert Sutton, Tommie Layton, Russell, Langley, Flick Ezzell, Leroy Campbell and Jim Speight.

Good Reception

Coy Frye said he has been getting good reception on his television recently, especially the World Series and football games.

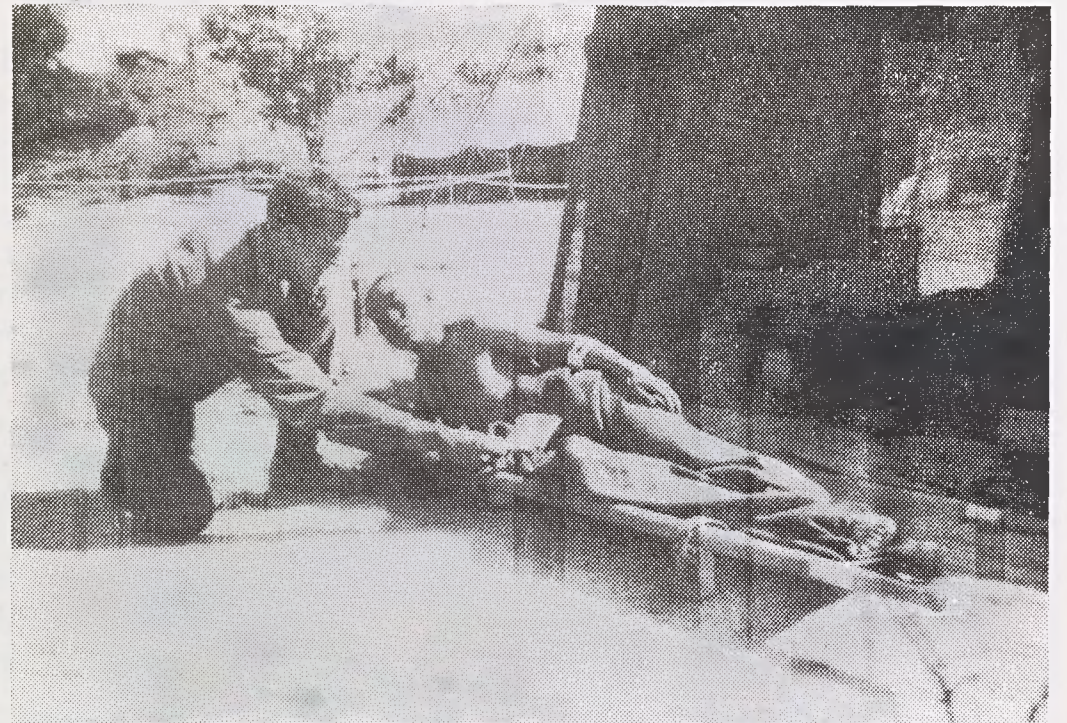

New Television Set

Nolie Robinson has a new television set and says his reception is very good. He enjoys sports of all kinds, especially the ball games, fights and wrestling matches.

In Wilmington

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brittain spent a weekend in Wilmington visiting Sam's father. They had a very nice time.

Our Service Men

Buck Draughn, the 22 year old son of Mrs. Mattie Draughn (Weaving) is shown administering first aid to a Chinese Red prisoner in Korea. He is a Medic.

Warping Reports

Sanford

Mrs. Agnes Proctor visited her husband in Sanford, N. C. recently.

Marriage

Roger Joyner has announced the marriage of his father, Lonnie Jefferson Joyner to Mrs. Pearl Parker.

Out Sick

Mrs. Dorothy Cockrell Doyle has been out sick for some time with appendicitis. We hope that she will improve rapidly.

Birthdays

Mrs. Ruby Bunn and Mrs. Agnes Proctor were talking about celebrating birthdays recently. This is real news when women admit they have birthdays.

Attending Meeting

Luther Cuddington and his mother attended the annual meeting at Holly Springs Baptist Church in Johnston County, Sunday, October 7, 1951.

Weekend Guest

Mrs. Mandy Coats had as her guest for a weekend her husband's cousin, who she had not seen in twenty-two years.

Out Sick

John Amos Dail spent several days in Duke Hospital for a minor operation. He has returned to work and he is well we are glad to report.

Fair Week

Leslie Jones and Reynolds Kennedy operated concessions at the Rocky Mount Fair. They had a very nice week.

New Cars

Gus Riley is sporting a new green 1951 Chevrolet. It's real pretty too.

Clyde Evans has a new 1951 black Pontiac.

Ward Given Job By The Governor

In a press release from the Governor's Office September 25, 1951 announcing some appointments effective that day, was also an appointment by Governor Scott of Quillen Ward of Rocky Mount, to the Advisory Committee of the North Carolina Recreation Commission representing industrial management for a period of two years, from September 25, 1951 to July 3, 1953.

In addition to the appointment from Governor Scott, Ward received a letter from Russell M. Grumman, chairman of the Advisory Committee, offering his congratulations, and giving notice of the next meeting to be held Monday, November 5, 1951 at the Robert E. Lee Hotel, Winston-Salem, and asking for suggestions and recommendations for future developments in Ward's special field of interest.

Company Buys Ten YMCA Memberships

During the recent Y. M. C. A. membership drive in Rocky Mount Sidney Blumenthal and Co. Inc., realizing the importance of the Y. M. C. A. to our community and our youth, again subscribed to ten Y. M. C. A. memberships for ten deserving local boys.

J. A. Harper, Y. M. C. A. General Secretary, extended his thanks to the Company for the check for $60.00 to pay for the memberships in a recent letter; and also stated that the memberships would be assigned at a later date to Rocky Mount boys.