Devotional Thoughts

Luke 2:15. And it came to pass when the angels went away from them, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. There was no thought of delay with the shepherds. They said, let us "now" go and see this thing that is come to pass. "Now" is God's time. "Behold, Now is the accepted time; behold Now is the day of salvation. We live in one eternal now. We cannot crawl under "now", nor can we pass around or climb over; we have no other time but "now". Tomorrow is the fool's word. Today is the time for decision. Joshua said, "choose you this day whom ye will serve." Our life is but a vapor which appeareth for a little while, and then it vanisheth away. How dare we, then, waste our little Now. The shepherds said, "let us now go even unto Bethlehem". They purposed in their hearts to go all the way; there was no thought of stopping short of a full obedience. Truly, a great "sight" was to be found in Bethlehem. There was a Savior, who was Christ the Lord. Yes, there in a manger was "God, manifest in the flesh". There was the Word that became flesh and tabernacled among us. We sing our carols and do our homage to the Babe of Bethlehem. Do we remember that that Babe was the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy: "Unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder"? That Babe was called the Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Do
