

Benvenue Seniors Received Diplomas In May

JANET CAMPBELL

Janet Campbell (above) daughter of LeRoy Campbell and Mrs. Ruby Campbell of the Weaving Department, graduated from Benvenue High in May. Janet played softball and basketball; and has been very active in the FHA. She was president in 1952 and has won her State Homemaker's Degree. Janet is very talented in Art, and was voted the Most Talented Girl in the Senior Class. She drew all the pictures in the high school Annual. Janet plans to go in training for a Nurse after graduation but she has not decided what hospital yet.

BILLY STANCIL

Billy Stancil, (above) 18 year old son of Mrs. Naomi Stancil of the Weaving Department, graduated from Benvenue High School this month. He is also brother of Rodger Stancil of the Dyehouse. Billy is president of the Senior Class, an active member of the Beta Club, and Sports reporter for the School.

BILLY DUNN

Billy Dunn, (above), son of Mrs. Edith Dunn of the Caromount Mending Department, graduated from Benvenue High School this month. He was an honor student, a member of the National Beta Club, and Editor of the school paper.

HAZEL MORRIS

Hazel Elizabeth Morris, the 18 year old daughter of Pearly Morris and Mrs. Mary Morris (Weaveshed) graduated from Benvenue High School in May and on May 20, Hazel went with the other 41 Seniors to New York on a pleasure trip for three days.

'Help Wanted - Male'

It wasn't so many years that a classified advertisement in a book-keeper appeared in a Detroit newspaper. Among those who answered the ad was an ambitious young chap named Harlow Curice. He got the job, and went on up the ladder in the company. Recently he became the president—of General Motors.

Wilson Division

Garland Wells and James Hamm, third shift fixers, went fishing recently. James was afraid of Garland's turning over the boat. Fishing was poor until James found out Garland could not swim.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Whitehead, third shift weavers, spent a weekend in Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. Kathleen Sasser has been complaining lately of never "going places"; so her husband took her to Lucama to spend a day.

Paul Coley is afraid of getting too fat, so you can go out most any afternoon and watch him playing baseball with his buddies.

Mrs. Doris Jones went to Roxboro and Danville, Va., recently.

Mrs. Kathleen Finch and twin sons, Harry and Larry, visited relatives in Norfolk and Virginia Beach, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. "Kitty" Riley attended the Eonca Legion Convention in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Langley were recent shoppers in Raleigh. "Dot" was looking for living room furniture.

Mrs. Lula Massey and family visited relatives in Washington, D. C.

We are glad to report that Calvin Jones, Erby Powell and Stalk Strickland have returned to work after missing time due to sickness.

Raymond Stith was called to Winston-Salem recently because of the serious illness of his brother, Julian Stith.

Mrs. Etta Daniels is still out because of a broken wrist.

The Charles L. Coon High Band participated in the Centennial Celebration in Durham. Miss Jean Stith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stith is a Majorette and Miss Jeanette Jones, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Jones, plays the Clarinet. Both are outstanding band members.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Davis are selling their home and moving to the country.

Mrs. Josephine Best and family spent a few days at Virginia Beach visiting her sister, Mrs. S. E. Hawkins.

Little Billie Whitley son of Mrs. Mary Lee Whitley on first shift, had a Toussaint my April 21. He is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rucker have moved to 615 Clark Avenue. Mrs. Rucker is a weaver on first shift.

Mrs. Maggie Vaughn was returned home from the hospital after having a severe stroke. She is the mother of Mrs. Viola Weston of first shift. Through the Red Cross, her two sons who

Our Service Men

Fort Jackson

Marshall Langley (above) of the Shipping Department left Caromount April 3, 1953 to have a few days off before he had to report to the United States Army April 13, 1953.

He wrote to send us his address. It is Pvt. Marshall E. Langley; U. S. 53165368; Co. G. 61st Inf.; Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

Marshall said, "I want to tell you how much I appreciate the help I got while I was working at the Mill. Everyone at the mill was so nice it was a pleasure working. I would like to hear from everyone. The Army is not so bad, the worst thing is being away from Rocky Mount; but I am looking forward to hearing from everybody and to getting The Caromount News."

Elmer Randolph Joyner has completed the pre-flight phase of his pilot training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. He was graduated in informal Ceremonies of the 374th Pre-Flight Training Group, commanded by Col. Wm. F. Stewart. This group is one of the largest military training organizations of Lackland, the Gateway to the Air Force base, commanded by Brig. Gen. Wycliffe E. Steele. It provides initial aviation Cadet Training for both pilot and aircraft observer students.

With the first twelve weeks of the program that will lead to the wings of an Air Force flying officer behind him, he will enter basic flying training upon leaving the San Antonio base.

were overseas, got a chance to come home. She has been improving ever since their return. T/Sgt. Frank Vaughn was in Japan and Pfc. Milton Vaughn was in Germany.