

North Carolina Summer Pageants Seen By Employees On Vacation Trips

Weavehead News

(Continued from Page Three)

Lester Finch and his family went to Top Sail Beach . . . Ocie and Louise Matthews spent part of their vacation at Nags Head . . . Lancy and Estelle Winstead went to Hoboken, Chowan River and Fayetteville during vacation week . . . Mrs. Katie Moore stayed at home house cleaning.

Arthur and Nannie Haddle divided their vacation week between Carolina Beach, Blue Ridge Mountains and Roanoke, Virginia . . . Herman and Juanita Rose visited relatives in Lumberton and Norfolk . . . Mavis and Narvin Godwin went to Ocean View, Buckroe Beach and Johnston County.

Lonnie and Alma Lamm went to Rock City, Tennessee and Cherokee, North Carolina, where they saw "Unto These Hills" . . . Olivia and Alex Nelms stayed at home all week and rested . . . Lucille and Richard Eason spent their vacation at Luray, Virginia, and White Lake.

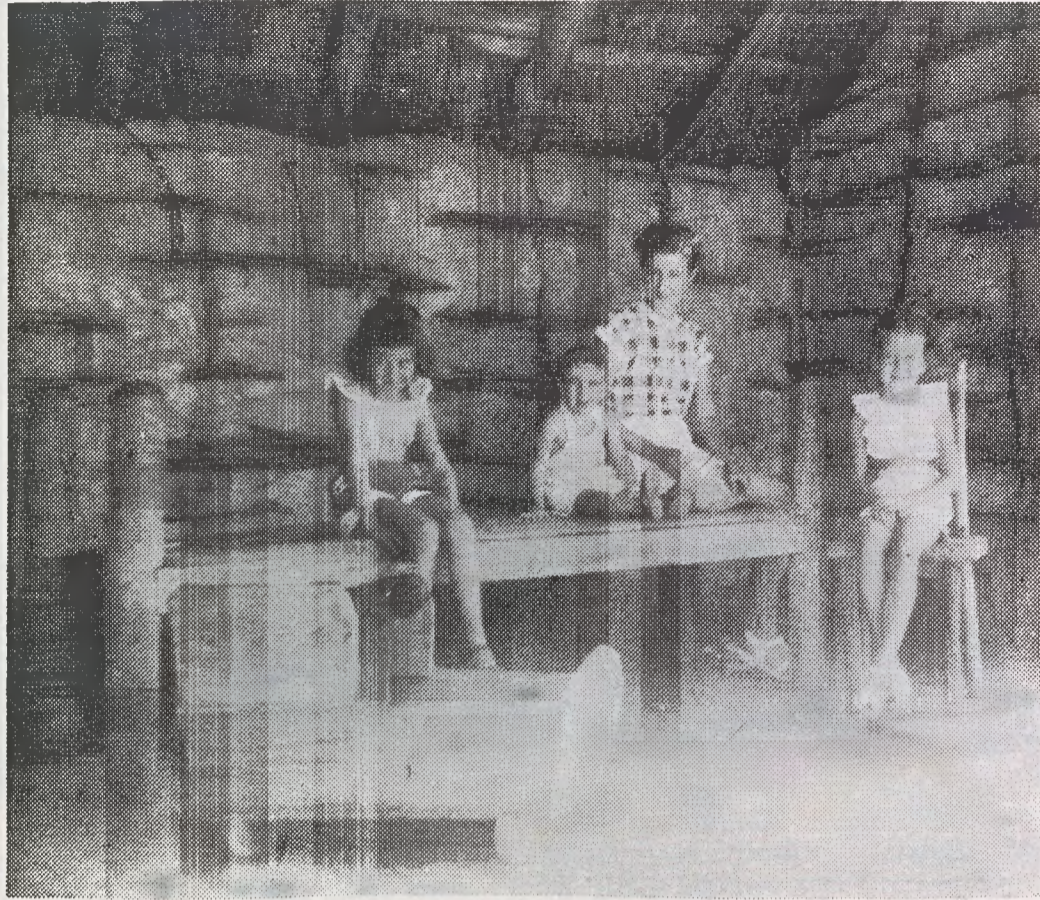

Mrs. Carrie Joyner visited her son in Washington, D. C. . . . Marvin Viverette went fishing but had very little luck . . . Ora Lee Ward spent the week at home resting up . . . Herbert and Lina Clark went to Portsmouth, Virginia, and White Lake . . . Mrs. Margaret Cockrell spent several days in Roanoke, Virginia, and the Smoky Mountains.

Lucille and Wimpey Cook spent their vacation at Chowan River, Morehead City and Core's Creek . . . Miss Lessie Bowden spent some time in the Blue Ridge Mountains, visited Blowing Rock, Asheville and Cherokee, where she saw "Unto These Hills" . . . Sam and Lettie Weaver went fishing to Chowan River and Hoboken . . . Minnie and Darwin Burnette spent their vacation at home resting . . . Mrs. Clarice Cawthorne went to Fayetteville last week . . . Ruby and Lacy Williams went fishing at Scuppernong river and Gardners Creek.

Selby Baker and family went to Carolina Beach . . . Thelma and James Long stayed home because of the illness of Mrs. Long's mother who is now out of the hospital recuperating nicely . . . Jacob Vick stayed at home and worked.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Ronel Powell announce the birth of a son, William Earl, on July 2, 1953, at Carolina General Hospital. Mr. Powell is employed at the Wilson Division.

Mrs. Al Inscoe (Mending) and children, Al, Jr., and Wanda Sue and Lynn Inscoe, daughter of Jack Inscoe, had the above picture taken recently while visiting the Waterside theatre at Manteo.

Mending Reports

We wish to welcome two new employees to this department. They are Seabury Thorp of 634 Sunset Avenue and John Boice Joyner of Middlesex. John was transferred from the shipping department.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brock and daughter, Frankie, spent the holidays at Atlantic Beach. They attended the races while there and had a wonderful time swimming and resting.

Mrs. Frances Pullen spent four days of her vacation in Raleigh with her daughter . . . Mrs. Rosa Vester and her daughter and son-in-law spent the week at Kures Beach . . . Mr. and Mrs. Al Inscoe and children spent the holidays at Manteo and Nags Head. They attended the Lost Colony and had a very enjoyable vacation.

Mrs. Retha Kermon and family spent their vacation at Carolina Beach. Mrs. Kermon returned with a beautiful tan and she did not get burned or blistered.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Worrell spent two weeks in Texas and California. Their daughter, Mrs. Inez Simmons, accompanied them in order to be with her husband who must undergo serious head surgery at Camp Stoneman.

Mrs. Clara Harlowe and family spent a few days at Manteo where they attended "The Lost Colony" and went to many interesting places.

Mrs. Claudia Doughtie's brother

Warping Dept

Mrs. Lessie Morgan and family spent their vacation in the mountains of western North Carolina and Tennessee. They visited Grandfather's Mountain, Mt. Mitchell, Smoky Mountains and Rock City. They had only one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Young and grandson, Barry, divided their vacation time between Norfolk, Virginia, Atlantic Beach, and Greensboro, North Carolina, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Mandy Coats made a trip to Buggs Island and then visited with friends in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Luther Cuddington and family spent some time at Atlantic and Minnesot Beaches and had a nice time fishing.

Mrs. Iris Pridgen and family tried out their new car by making a trip to Pamlico . . . Mrs. Nellie Baker enjoyed part of her vacation at White Lake . . . Mrs. Nora Parker spent some time at Morehead . . . Mrs. Kathleen Baxley spent her vacation getting acquainted with her young granddaughter.

Romeo and Willard Cooper (Weaving) spent some time fishing at Norfolk. They brought David Collins from Texas, spent a week with her. She was very glad to see him.

Mrs. Blanche Brantley has received word that her son, Pete Donald, is at Fort Jackson where he is stationed for his basic training.

home enough fish for their own use and also enough to prove their spirit of good neighborliness.

W. A. Baxley went to Wilson to see the new addition to the Wilson Division, now under construction . . . Roger Joyner spent four days of his vacation at Jimmy Roberson's camp on the Inland Waterway near Shallotte. The fishing was good . . . J. P. Morgan stayed at Virginia Beach from Thursday night through Sunday morning of his vacation week.

Mrs. Edna Mae Evans visited friends in Windsor and Norfolk for several days . . . Mrs. Ruby Bunn caught a few fish in Yeopim Creek. Most of them were so small they were returned home. She and her husband also went to Whichards Beach for one day.

Mrs. Grace Pate recently visited relatives in Mount Olive . . . Mrs. Naomi Stencil went to Carolina Beach for several days. She also stayed at Holdens Beach for one day . . . Mrs. Thelma Snead visited relatives and friends in Mebane and Burlington . . . Mrs. Dorothy Doyle and family visited her husband's family and relatives in Westover, Maryland.

Mrs. Myrtle Howell and family spent the week at Pamlico fishing and relaxing . . . William Barnes and family stayed home and took it easy . . . Polly Hall and daughters enjoyed their vacation at Newton Grove and White Lake.

Mrs. Agnes Proctor and family visited friends in Atlanta, Ga., then came back to Chattanooga, Tennessee, through the Great Smoky Mountains, into the Cherokee Reservation. They had a very enjoyable trip.

Ira Thompson spent part of his vacation at Morehead . . . Mrs. Janie Alexander and family spent their vacation at Pamlico.

Miss Agnes Proctor (Warping) is shown above visiting friends in Atlanta during her vacation.