

People You Know

Irvin Wesley Pittman is a Folder Helper in the Raw Goods Storage Department at the Caromount Division of Sidney Blumenthal & Co. Inc. where he has been employed since August 25, 1947.

Irvin was born July 22, 1921, the fourth child of Mrs. Carey Rosetta Neal Pittman and the late Thomas Dalmor Pittman of Nash County. He attended Rocky Mount City Schools until he left to drive a truck for a produce company. He went from that to Rocky Mount Mills where he worked about four years. Then he drove a cab for about a year previous to coming to Caromount in 1947.

Irvin was married, January 28, 1941 to the former Miss Lenner Jane Spivey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spivey of Rocky Mount. The Pittmans have two children: a daughter, Linda Diane Pittman, 10 years of age and a fourth grade student at Williford School; and a son, Irvin Ray Pittman, 8 years old and a third grade pupil at Williford School.

Irvin and his wife own their home at Route 4, Rocky Mount; and they are affiliated with the Marvin Methodist Church in Rocky Mount.

Irvin's hobbies are fishing and hunting, and he spends practically all of his spare time either with a dog and a gun, or with a fishing pole. The Pittmans have a garden and raise most of the vegetables they use for their table.

Wilson Plant Expands

(Continued from Page One)

in Shelton to service the local needs of that plant.

Fred Stolzenberg, Purchasing Agent for the Company, will be in charge of the Purchasing Department, and Assistant Purchasing Agent, Richard Sweetman, will come down with this department. Richard Canava will be in charge of the Technical Department.

Wilson News

George Boyette spent his vacation in Virginia visiting relatives. . . . Theophilus Barnes and family went to Georgia on their vacation to visit relatives. Theophilus reports the prettiest thing on the trip was the water melon festival and parade in Hampton, S. C.

Mrs. Madeline Privette and her husband spent their vacation in Norfolk, Virginia, and report a wonderful time.

Mrs. Mae Dickerson and her husband made the rounds of beaches during their vacation. They visited Myrtle, Wrightsville, Top Sail, Morehead, and Virginia beaches.

Sam and Dot Langley traveled over the Skyline Drive, went through Luray Caverns and visited the home of Thomas Jefferson, Monticello. They also went to White Lake and on Sunday, July 5, they attended a family reunion in honor of Dot's mother, Mrs. M. H. Whitley, on her 61st birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ward, their daughter-in-law, Jerry, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Glover went to Top Sail beach Saturday. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Garland Wells and family spent the weekend at Bay View recently. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stith and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ward went fishing at Swansboro and caught 185 fish.

Mrs. Polly Davis has a new frozen food locker and has moved out in the country to fill it with chickens and other good things to eat. We were sorry to hear of the accident her husband, Ivan, had with the car. They were unable to go anywhere on their vacation.

Mrs. Mary Lena Whitley and her husband went sight seeing in Washington, D. C., New York, and Harrisburg, Pa. They were called home on Friday due to the illness of Mr. Whitley's father.

We are glad to have Mrs. Lucille Barnes back with us. Lucille recently had an operation and was out for a while. . . . Mrs. Estelle Grissom's son, David, is ill in Duke Hospital. We hope he will soon be well. . . . J. P. and Ruth Whitehead visited relatives in Virginia during their vacation. . . . Paul Coley and family spent part of their vacation at Carolina Beach. . . . Lou and Ernest Johnson visited Niagara Falls while on vacation. They said they needed about another week for such a trip.

Mrs. Doris Skinner and her husband and two boys spent last week at White Lake. . . . Roy Messer visited relatives in Virginia last week and did quite a bit of fishing at Ocean View.

Thanks Expressed

A letter to E. H. Sussmuth, Resident Manager, of the Southern Division of Sidney Blumenthal & Co., Inc., stated, "The Students, Sisters, and Parents of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School wish to express their gratitude to the Caromount Mills for the use of its park on May the twenty-first. All had a wonderful time and enjoyed themselves to the utmost." About one hundred twenty-five students, Sisters, and parents spent the day in the Caromount Recreation Park. They played games, enjoyed softball, and filled up on hot dogs, doughnuts, and lemonade.

James Hamm and family visited relatives in Virginia. Later in the week they joined Mr. and Mrs. Martin Raper on a fishing trip.

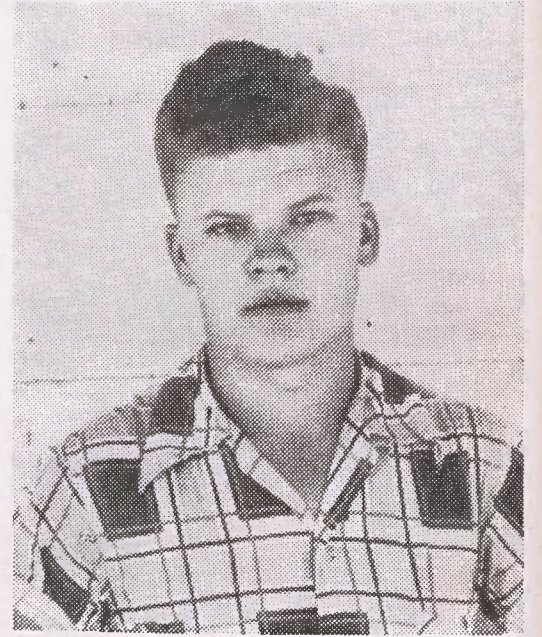

Mrs. Hazel Brown and daughter, Jessie, accompanied Garland and Geraldine Wells on a trip to Asheville and Gatlinburg, Tennessee. They were trying to find a cool spot but Garland says it wasn't cool up there either. . . . Mrs. Mildred Poston and her husband, with Millard Leonard and his wife, went to White Lake last week. Later in the week Mildred and her husband visited relatives in Georgia and came back by Myrtle Beach.

J. T. Bone and his family enjoyed a trip to Morehead last week. . . . Mary and Rastie Ferrell spent some time at Minnesot Beach last week where Mary caught her first fish. . . . Hubert Murphy and family spent part of vacation week in Portsmouth. . . . Bennie Dunn spent his vacation in Roxboro visiting his mother. . . . Kathleen and Eunice Sasser visited White Lake during the vacation week.

James Bissett's son, Joseph Earl, was home on leave from the Navy during vacation week, so they enjoyed being at home together. . . . Miss Myrtle Speight went fishing with some friends at Mattamuskeet Lake but the fish didn't bite and it was also hot down there, so she journeyed home and enjoyed the "cool" weather here. . . . Ernest Thomas said he thought when you had a vacation you should rest, so that's just what he did. Others sharing his opinion were Bill Bone, Robert Wade and Vera Robbins.

Holton, Adelle, and Sherron Bond spent last week at Wrightsville Beach. . . . Millard Mantooth went to Kansas and brought his wife's brother home who is in the Army, so they enjoyed having him and his family here to visit them.

Our Service Men

Roger Nines who left on June 19, for the Armed Services, has been sent to Fort Jackson, South Carolina, where he is awaiting further transfer for his basic training.

In Korea

Henry G. Ingram wrote recently from Korea that he was on the front lines over there. He said they stay on the lines 10 days and then go behind the lines for 10 days, and continue to rotate in this way for 9 months. He hopes to be home in about 8 months. His address is: Pvt. Henry G. Ingram; U. S. 53142531; Co. C. 17th Inf. Regt, APO 7; % Postmaster San Francisco California.

We have received word that Flonnie J. Parker, Jr. has also been sent to Korea. His new address is: Pvt. Flonnie J. Parker, Jr., US 53128182; Hq. Co. 1st Bn. 223—Inf. Regt; 40th Div. APO 6, % Postmaster; San Francisco, California.

At Camp Lejeune

Cpl. Rosser L. Eakes has recently been sent back to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, after serving with the Army in Korea. His new address is: Cpl. Rosser L. Eakes, 1210755; C A S Co. 1 H and S Bn.; Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Linda Faye Morgan, daughter of Bertis Morgan, (Final Examining), visited the Great Smoky Mountains during vacation week with her parents. The above picture was snapped while touring the Cherokee Indian Reservation.