Devotional Thoughts

Acts 1:8

"Ye Shall Be Witnesses Unto Me"

The train pulled into the station. Up and down beside the train several boys moved as they sought to sell their wares—apples, peanuts, candy, and so forth—to the passengers looking out their windows. One of the boys, Bill, was a crippled lad who could not move as rapidly as the others but depended for his selling on the beautiful "shine" he put on his apples before the trains came in.

Bill was standing at the car step as the train stopped. A man in a hurry stepped off and not seeing the little crippled lad bumped into him and sent him sprawling in the dust—scattering his beautiful apples everywhere. And the man went on. Another man stepped off and took in the situation at a glance. He stopped, helped Bill to his feet, picked up the basket and the apples, wiped them off with a clean handkerchief, bought a few, and started off.

The boy's look held him for a moment. Then shortly the boy's wavering voice asked, "Mister, be you Jesus?"

"No, son," he replied, "I am not Jesus. Why do you ask that?"

"I heard," said the boy, "that there was a man named Jesus, who went about doing good things for people; and you are the only person who ever did anything like this for me. I thought you must be Jesus."

Mending Reports

Visit to Norfolk

Mrs. Annie Woodard and daughter, Mrs. B. A. Garrell of Tabor City, motored to Norfolk recently to spend the weekend with Mrs. M. L. Etheridge, another of Mrs. Woodards' daughters.

Visit Relatives in Washington

Mrs. Tellie Coley and daughter, Miss Frances Coley, Miss Ruby Ezzelle and niece, Miss Dianne Ezzelle, spent a recent weekend in Washington, D. C. visiting Mrs. Coley's daughter, Miss Jane Coley. They did some shopping on Saturday.

Honored on Birthlay

Mrs. Rosa Vester was honored at a birthday dinner at the Caromount Field House on September 27, by her family. She was very happy to have her mother, Mrs. Senora Deans, here and to have Mrs. Deans go to Mrs. Vester's home.

There were chicken, barbecue, ham, and all the things required for a sumptuous birthday dinner. There were also gifts for the honor guest.

Painful Injury

Mrs. Nina Rogers had a very painful experience recently when her hand got caught in a wringer and pulled her arm through above the wrist. The pain and shock caused her to give way and fall before she fainted. In the fall or shock she threw the wringer in reverse which turned her hand out. She cannot remember how she freed herself. There were no broken bones but she had a bad looking hand and arm.

Boone Family Reunion

Mrs. Vata Lou Perdue and Mrs. Eva Collie attended the Boone family reunion on September 27, at White Oak Church. Even though it was a rainy day there was a large crowd there to enjoy the bountiful dinner of barbecue, brunswick stew, country ham, fried chicken, sandwiches, and everything else which goes to make a perfect picnic. Mrs. Perdue spent Saturday night before the reunion with her aunt, Mrs. Ed Lamm, and Mrs. Collie spent the night with her stepson, Frank Collie of Momeyer. They report a grand time.

Visit from Son

Mrs. Ruth Reid's son, Chief Allen Reid, spent several days with her prior to sailing for the Pacific and Korea. He will be gone about 8 months.

Out Sick

Mrs. Edith Dunn has been out sick for some time. She has been in the Memorial Hospital much of the time. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Little Gerald Batts, pictured above, is the grandson of Mrs. Tellie Coley of the Mending Department. Gerald's mother, the former Geraldine Coley, was employed at Caromount in the shipping Department. They are now making their home in London, England, where Mr. Batts is stationed with the Army.

Note Of Thanks

To the people and co-workers of Caromount and the Company as a whole, the dearest people I have ever worked with:

I want to express my gratitude and appreciation for every deed of kindness and every act of love that was shown to me and our entire family in the departing of our loved one and brother, A. J. English. May God, in all of His wisdom and love, add His blessings to each of you. This is the desire of my heart.

As Ever
 Perry English
