hey

all

the ests

lace

to

ian

and

and

au-

Eur

me

his

is

fort lace tory ring lud hey ical on ven the e of ere and Buckie Joyner and Clifton Joyner of the Caromount Weaving Department went deep sea fishing at Morehead City. Results are shown above.

Jack Thomas of the Caromount Weaving Department is shown in front of a Jug house located between Burlington and Reidsville. This house contains about 2,000 gallon jugs.

Rodger Joyner of the Warping Department is shown surf casting while vacationing at Holden's Beach and Windy Point recently.

Weaveshed Folks Go East West North & South

Ruth and Sam Brittain spent vacation week at Carolina Beach. . . . Mildred Cobb spent a few days at Myrtle Beach. . . . John Dail and his family spent three days at Miami Beach. John reports he caught 40 pounds of rish—enough to feed his family tor four days, but when the fish gave out and they started home ne had too many back seat drivers, got lost, and drove 380 miles to get back to where he started from. ... Luther and Lucille Rowe toured Williamsburg where they saw the pageant, "Common Glory". . . . Herbert and Lina Clark and their daughter, Carolyn, went to Ocean View and Buckroe Beach with friends. . . . Luther and Louise Balkcum visited in Norfolk and enjoyed the beaches. . . . Harry and Lena Walker traveled through the mountains around Asheville and saw lots of interesting things. Mrs. Walker said Harry acted like a monkey during the whole trip. . . . Hazel Thomas, Garland Rose, Lillie Mae and Tom Rowland spent three days at Carolina Beach and had a swell time. No sun burns at all. . . . Johnnie Bell Harris and some friends went to Nags Head and spent the night during vacation. They report a very good time. . . . Agnes Langley visited her daughter in Brunswick, Georg-While vacationing she went to St. Augustine Beach and spent two days. She reports a lovely vacation. . . . Alice Long would have enjoyed fishing had the fish jumped in the boat instead of over her fishing pole. Results—I fish. . . . Ardie Winstead stayed at home and had a nice rest. . . . Mr. and Mrs. James Ezzell and Mr. and Mrs. John Young spent part of the week at Carolina Beach. . . . Julius Eppes stayed home and enjoyed his tropical fish in the shade during the hot days of his vacation. . . . Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Layton enjoyed staying at home resting in the shade. . . . Mrs. Croom and her family had a wonderful time at home enjoying a good rest. . . . Mrs. Mamie Taylor and her family also stayed at home for a much-needed rest. . . . Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bledsoe went to Blowing Rock and had a very nice time. . . . Mrs. Annie Ray spent one day at Pamlico and visited friends and relatives in Wilmington—enjoyed it very much. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Batton spent their vacation touring Florida.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown went to Carolina Beach and the mountains of western North Carolina during vacation week. . . .

Maggie Powell and Maude Collins went to Florida.

Ruby Campbell went to Baltimore to visit her son on her vacation. . . Olivia Nelms vacationed at Pamlico and Whichards Beach. . . . Clyde Jones spent a day at Minnesot during vacation week. . . . Herman and Juanita Rose toured Florida the week of July fourth. . . . Lillie Mae Rowland spent most of her vacation at the beach. . . . Richard and Lucille Eason spent their vacation week at Wrightsville and Atlantic beaches. . . . Lessie Bowden visited in the Blue Ridge Mountains. . . . Dixie Page went fishing at Morehead. . . . Ethel Casey went to Ocean View and enjoyed some fishing. . . . Albert and Annie Gardner vacationed at White Lake while the plant was closed. . . . Clifton and Mildred Ezzelle went fishing at Morehead. . . . Jeanette Lindsey spent part of her vacation at Whichards Beach. . . . Nannie Haddle vacationed at Carolina Beach. . . . Margaret Pittman visited her mother in Norfolk, Virginia. . . . J. J. Pridgen, James and Dora Pridgen and Clyde Pridgen and his wife went to Melton's Pond fishing and caught several large chubs. . . . Red and Louise Matthews took a tour through South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee. . . . Phyllis Bone is spending two weeks vacation with her mother, Mrs. Ethel Bone. Phyllis is in training at Rex Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morris toured the Skyline Drive dur ing their vacation. Ralph is shown above while they stopped at a roadside park to view the beautiful scenes in the mountains of Western North Carolina.

Mesdames Maggie Powell and Maud Collins of the Caromount Weaving Department visited Silver Springs, Florida during vacation week.

Miriam, daughter of Mrs. Maude Collins of the Caromount Weaveshed, is shown near Silver Springs, Florida where she and her mother vacationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Campbell of the Weaveshed and their daughters, Lois and Brenda vacationed at the beach. They are shown above, left to right, Lois, Leroy, Mrs. Campbell with Brenda in front,