

People You Know

Clyde Moses Wall came to work at Caromount January 9, 1947, as a material handler in the Weaving Department. In October of 1947, he transferred to Final Inspection, where he has been since that time. He is now head examiner on the second shift.

Clyde was born November 15, 1920, in Nash County, the son of Annie Jones Wall and Johnnie Wall. He received his education at Ferrell school in Nash County.

Clyde entered the Army in October, 1942, and served with the 823rd Field Artillery Unit. He was discharged from the Army in November, 1945.

In 1941, Clyde was married to the former Emma Ruth Jones from Edgecombe County. They have two sons, James Randolph and Charles Lee, and two daughters, Shirley Ruth and Margaret Anne. All the children are in school at West Edgecombe, except Margaret Anne.

Clyde does radio repair work as a hobby at home.

Employees To Receive Help With Tax Returns

Assistance in filing State and Federal Income Tax Returns will be given at the Caromount Personnel Office on March 2 between 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon and 1:30 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.

State representatives request that everyone bring blanks mailed to you.

Bring your total wage and deduction blanks to be distributed by the Payroll Department soon.

News From The Wilson Division

Farewell Party

Mrs. Charlie Ward entertained on December 29, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Max Ward, who has left for California, where she will make her home while Max is there in service.

The color scheme of green and red was carried out in the decorations throughout the home, which included miniature vehicles used for traveling, a child's red car decorated with a sign, "California", held a shower of gifts for the honoree.

Various games were played during the party and prizes were won by Mrs. Agnes Taylor, Mrs. Claude Lamm and the honoree.

The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Vernon Glover, Mrs. Raymond Stith and Mrs. Mack Owens. Approximately 30 guests attended the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward left by plane January 3, for San Francisco.

Holiday Visitors

T-Sgt. and Mrs. Eldred Lenerette have returned to their home in Selmer, Alabama, after spending the holidays with Mrs. Lenerette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whitley.

Holidays In Lumberton

Miss Gladys Barnes spent the holidays with Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Marshburn of Lumberton.

Guests From Washington

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bason and daughter, Ann, of Washington, D. C. spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Bason's sisters, Mrs. Virginia Hill and Mrs. Bennie Edwards.

Holidays With Parents

Ronel Powell and family spent the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mallie Powell, of Elm City.

In Newton Grove

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bass spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Bass' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira King of Newton Grove.

Christmas At Home

We are very happy that William Godwin's wife was able to leave the hospital and spend the Christmas holidays with her family. Mrs. Godwin had been a patient at Woodard-Herring Hospital for several weeks.

South Carolina Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Theophilus Barnes had as their guests recently Mrs. Barnes' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rivers and daughter, Dianne, of Barnwell, S. C.

Hospital Patient

William Cowan is a patient in the Veteran's Hospital in Durham. We wish him a speedy recovery and hope he will soon be back on the job.

Mountain Tour

Mr. and Mrs. James Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wells spent a recent weekend touring the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Birthday Party

Ronnie Skinner, son of Mrs. Rebecca Skinner of the third shift, was recently honored by his mother at a party on his tenth birthday. Approximately 24 young guests attended the party, playing both outdoor and indoor games. The honoree was showered with birthday gifts from the guests.

Ice cream, birthday cake, nuts, candy and bubble gum were served by Mrs. Skinner and blow-outs and musical balloons were given as favors.

Christmas In Kinston

Mrs. Phyllis Ball, her husband and daughter, spent Christmas in Kinston. Little Connie, Mrs. Ball's daughter, celebrated her third birthday December 15.

Good Building Weather

Russell Taylor, a weaver on second shift, says he didn't do much during Christmas but he sure had nice weather for building a tobacco barn.

"This Old House"

Mrs. Juanita Mattox and family have recently purchased—not a new house—but an old one. They are real proud of it. Their new address is 1007 Grove Street.

Welcome

We wish to welcome Mrs. Mildred Poston back with us.

Holidays In Dunn

Mrs. Amy Baker Norris and family spent their Christmas holiday in Dunn with Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson.

Clark Edwards Joins Personnel At Wilson

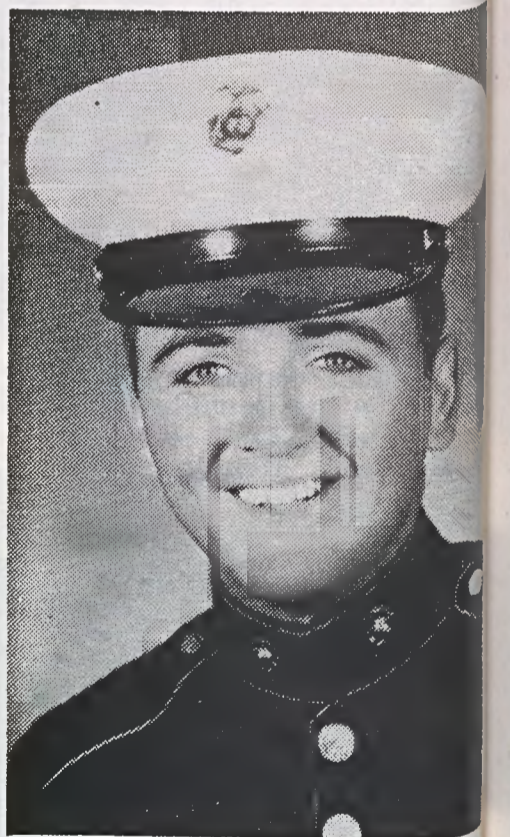

Clark Edwards, a native of Fountain, North Carolina, has recently come to work at the Wilson Division in the Personnel Department under the direction of R. Quillen Ward. He is a 1948 graduate of South Edgecombe High School and attended North Carolina State College.

On November 24, 1954 Clark was discharged from the United States Air Force as a Personnel Specialist. While in service he spent most of his time at Otis Air Force Base in Falmouth, Massachusetts, stationed with the 564th Food Service Squadron. Upon completion of tour at Otis Air Force Base he was stationed in Newfoundland and Labrador for a period of thirteen months.

In the near future Clark plans to move from Fountain to Wilson with his wife and two small daughters.

Mrs. Rosa Lee Faucette and her husband are pictured during the Christmas holidays while visiting their daughter and son-in-law in Florida. While in Florida they visited many places of interest and the above photo was taken at Valpariso Inn, where they stayed in Florida.

Pvt. James L. (Pete) Thompson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Thompson of the Wilson Division. Pete, Jr. sailed on November 29th, for Korea where he will be with the 1st Marine Division.

LITTLE HAZARDS CAN CAUSE BIG INJURIES

