TV Classes Are Next To The Newest

For another year, the Dudley High Juniors, in United States History, are taking part in the television history class. The classes that started as an experiment, are now a part of the school curriculum. These classes are made up of approximately 10,000 students in the North Carolina school system. They are taught by Mrs. Lois Edinger, from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Classes begin at 9:00 a.m. and are held 30 minutes, over W.U.N.C. T. V., Channel 4. Mrs. Edinger gives a review of the lesson from the previous day, sums it up, and then gives the new lesson for that particular day. After the T. V. class, a period is given for questions or discussion of the lesson. The students have guide sheets, that are distributed, enabling the students to prepare for their lessons in advance. In order for a student to get anything out of the lessons, he has to give his undivided attention to the television lecture.

The advisors at Dudley are Mrs. E. Jenkins, Mrs. I. Jenkins and Mrs. Robinson—overall chairman. These teachers are given special classes during the summer at the University of North Carolina to help further their knowledge of the course.

J. A. Tarpley, principal. Then the officers were duly installed by Dr. Tarpley who wished them success as they assumed their new duties.

Of special note was the presentation of the speaker, Mr. Norman Hoyle, 1958 Dudley graduate and ex-president of the Student Council. Mr. Hoyle spoke on the subject, "Dudley's Alma Mater." With warmth and sincerity, the speaker exhorted the assembly to remember and to live by the "Message" of the Alma Mater. He assured the listeners that there was "Success ahead through open doors."

where she is a member of the Junior Choir, president of Junior Missionaries and a member of the Usher Board. Claudia is also a member of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Claudia reigned over the Homecoming game and a social which were held. Claudia and her attendants wore Navy blue suits and shoes and gold accessories. Her attendants were Rosa Tribble, Annie Alexander, Barbara McDowell, and Ann Stables.

Claudia has these things to say on becoming Miss Homecoming: "To represent my Alma Mater in the honorable position of Miss Homecoming for 1958-59, is to realize one of my greatest aspirations.

"May I express my deep gratitude to you by reigning over the classic festivities with grace and queenliness. In the same breath may I congratulate our football players who have performed this year and are performing with the agility and adroitness of the mighty Panther.

"Yes, I thank you for choosing me as your Miss Homecoming, but I also want you to remember that I shall always carry the Dudley High School Banner high—wherever I may represent my school.

May God bless you in all your activities and pursuits."
