"REST AWHILE." JESUS.

BY REV. A. R. BRADBURY A. M.

Rest awhile, yes, rest awhile,
Rest from labors, cares and toil, Rest upon God's Sabbath day, Only worship, sing, and pray.

Rest from sorrows, tears, and griefs, Find in Him some sure relief, Lay aside the works of earth, Think of Christ, his matchless worth.

Rest awhile, yes, rest awhile,
God and angels on your smile,
'Tis a sinful tiresome world, Batan has not yet been hurled.

Leads of sin still weigh you down, Will; till you obtain your crown, Rest then in your Saviour's arms, Never fear the loud alarms.

Thunders roar, and earthquakes shake,
On the beach, vast billows break, Rest in hope, yes, rest in peace, Let all troubles, sorrows cease.

Rest, as you pass down to death, Till you draw your lastest breath, Never fear its gloomy veil, Jesus Christ will never fail.

FLYING AWAY TO JESUS.

C. G. Bicknell, a missionary of the American Sunday School Union in Michigan. "At least four churches have closed their schools this season.
Two weeks ago a church edifice was dedicated midway between two of my schools. Revival interests are prevailing in many of the schools. This season appears specially favored by ingatherings among the children. From several schools I have news of terrible affliction. The school at H. started under peculiar discouragements, yet it soon grew to a membership of one hundred. Large children had never heard of Jesus Christ, except, as one girl said after a moment, "Jesus? Yes, that's the name my father says when he swears." At present the scarlet fever, that scourge of children, is raging there, and some have already been borne away to the grave. "Dying is now, to these dear children, no leap in the dark. It is, as one said little girl dying away to Jesus? Another who watched with one of the sick all night said, "The little sufferer suddenly roused up and exclaimed, "Oh! I am so glad I found Jesus!" "Don't you want to get well?" said the watcher.
"Just as Jesus pleases. He knows best. It is all right," was the answer." So this pioneer Sunday school work prepares the living to live, and those who are soon to die, for death and the kingdom."--S. S. World.

APPLYING THE SERMON.

"I can remember the sermon well enough," said a lad, just returned from the Sabbath service. "I member it too well. I wish I could forget sometimes. The trouble isn't in remembering but applying.
"Last Sunday the minister preached a sermon on charity. The text was, 'Let brotherly love continue.' it was an excellent discourse. I ought to have taken it home to myself. Do you suppose I did? Not at all did I I kept saying to myself all the time: How well that part fits Mr. King over there. No wonder he colors.
How appropriate that part was to those seminary teachers who have just been setting their scholars a copy in quarrelling and unkindness among themselves. Don't believe the Prof. will come next Sunday.
'How well that coat fits stinky old Mr. Neal. Wonder if he will put it on.
Mrs. Mand ought to remember that word about courtesy. She never turns her head to speak to the next door neighbor in the pew right opposite her.

That part, fits Col. Harrison to a T.
He is always meddling with other people's business.

Wonder if Julia Brown heard that part about burying old grudges. She is always rehearsing hers.

Oh, how I did enjoy that sermon!
I went home full of it. How appropriate it was! I exclaimed how well fitted to our congregation. Pretty good hit for a stranger.

Just what I thought, said Ned my youngest brother. Hope you and Tom Barnes will profit by it.

SAVED HIM 1800 DOLLARS.

Adams N. Y. Jan. 30. 1882 Dr. B. J. Kendall Co. Gents having used a good deal of your Kendall's spavin cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what it has done for me. Two years ago I had as quicky a colic as ever raised in Jaffer-County, when I was breaking him he kicked over the cross bar and got his leg tore all to pieces. I employed the best farriers but they all said he was spoiled. I had a very large through-pm. And I used two bottles of your Kendall's spavin cure, and it took the bunch entirely off, and he sold afterwards for $1800 I have used it for bone Spavin and wind galls and it has always cured completely and left the legs smooth.

It is a splendid remedy for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a great many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Witherington & Kneelands drug store, in Adams, and saw a very fine picture you sent them, I tried to buy it but could not. They say it I wrote to you would send me one. I wish you would and I will do you all the good I can. Very respectfully, E. S. Lyman
