*To all of our Friends:
 Since last summer's Penland Line the development office has acquired new database software. All of your information was transferred into this database by an actual human being. If you see that your name has been spelled incorrectly, we have neglected to list a member of your family, or you would like your name listed differently, please call Erika Sanger and she will make the correction for future listings. Thanks in advance for your understanding.*

AUCTION VOLUNTEERS

Special thanks to all of you who helped us make the 10th Annual Benefit Auction a success. Penland relies on volunteers for their generous assistance on many occasions throughout the year, but the auction would not be possible without those who help with the preparations, service, and every little detail that makes the event special.

If you helped us during the tenth annual benefit auction, and your name does not appear on the above list, please call us and you will be thanked in the next Penland Line.

Special thanks to the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources and to Secretary Betty Ray McCain for the generous one-time appropriation to Penland of funds for public use in 1995.

PENLAND LOSES A FRIEND

Penland lost a good friend when J. Gordon Hanes, Jr. died on August 31. He was one of North Carolina's great industrialists and a devoted supporter of the arts. He and his wife, Copey, were major donors to the glass studio and several times helped Penland match NEA grants. It can safely be said that Penland would not be what it is today without the generosity of Gordon and Copey Hanes. He will be missed.

CONCENTRATION SCHOLARSHIPS

An increase in donations to Friends of Penland over the past few years has enabled us to offer more work/study scholarships, particularly during Concentration sessions. Forty-three percent of students in the 1995 spring and fall Concentrations received full or partial work/study assistance. Nearly fifty percent of the students in the spring 1996 Concentration are receiving full or partial work/study assistance. In our effort to reach out and make Penland accessible to the changing craft community we are delighted to be able to expand our scholarship program with thanks to the support of Friends of Penland. If you have yet to make your contribution this year, it is not too late! Complete the form below, and mail it in with your donation which will directly support the school's educational mission.
