794th Tech. Sch. Squadron By Sgt. Bill Spencer

Rumors persist in the squadron that Cpl. Stan. logorzelski is tobe married when he goes on his furlough next month. Stan is a fine fellow and we all offer premature congratulations.

It is about time that our Mail room under the able direction of S/ Sgt. Bill Donohue got a vote of thanks from the outfit. They have done a fine job, and as usual the Mail man of the outfit is the most popular guy. Nice going Bill!

Well our basketball team isn't winning every game, but they are out there fighting with everything they have...Win or lose, the lads of our equadron is with them 100 percent.

Pvt.J. Tate of our outfit broke the record for high scoring in one game when he scored 12 field goals and four fouls to total 30 points. Our team lost, but with such spirit of Pvt. Tate's, we're bound to get h spirit our satisfaction anyway.

The new pridegroom of the squad ron is Pfc Mark Komar, and naturally the heartfelt congrats is extended.

One of the nicest lads of our little group, Ffc Neal C. Kelso, page ed his O.C.S. quiz and soon he'll be off for Infmatry O.C.S.

To the fine shows that the USO has been putting on at the post a vote of thanks of the squadron.

The new great lover of our lit-tle group is Pfc Ben Bogdan. He and Sgt. Vic Mazza are the champs. A most familiar figure these days burning up the road on his bic-ycle is Lt. Dobson. Any riding he takes on the bike is bound to make an impression on him, methinks! Well we'll all probably be seeing him in Madison Square Garden when we win the WST.

BOlst Tech. Sch. Squadron By Pfc W. J. O'Hara

We all join in and wish Opl. Collette a lot of luck in his dob, that of supply sgt. Pvt. Fred Porcelli is certainly a lucky guy, you see his girl lives autside Gate2 and she meets him there quite often to go dancing, Freddy being a jibe & live enthesiast.

One of our most recent arrivals is Norman (Windy) Newmier's daught-er, we have heard she will be christ ened "Gloria (Clara Bow) Newmier, and here's hoping she doesn't take after her father as far as lung capacity is concerned.

Quite a few of the lads over at this part of the woods are getting very athletic with some of the boys actually tackling the obstacle course at night, when they don't have to.

Sgt. Robert Mabley, the renowned trotter, trotted form farther globe south lately and from all his accounts visited many of the local museums and especially the habille of one Mabel. For further information ask him about her.

Girls, girls beware, it se if one of our most prominent Romeos is on the loose with Rocky Hount territory well comered by the wandering Lothario, he is now reaming Wilson, Mt. Olive and points, north, south, east and west. So Gals, beware.

Three cheers for the new floor matting which is more a welcome addition to our quarters, and morning's don't seem as chilly anymore.

The outfit lost a fine officer and gentleman when Lt. George Burris transferred to the Special Service Section. Come back for a visit, Lti! .. With all the moving that took place it's little wonder that many of the men could be seen walking aroughd with a bewildered look on their pusses trying to find out which bunk rightfully is their's...A large exc ellence banner to Lt. Houlshouser for the great work in fixing up our dayrooms. Just wait till our Class A day room is fixed up-with soft rugs and chairs, reading lamps and everything ... Everyone who has seen the basket-ball team in action must adthe mit with a little more of Lady Lucks best wishes, they could have conped top honors in the Bomber League. things stand now, the club is waiting for the final eliminations to show those who doubt the real goods The other day we had a session of speed ball and 1st Sgt. Bill Rard on will readily admit now that it is a pretty tough game. (Ed Note: Yours truly knows from painful experience the lat sarge ain't akiddin')... The dog that Sgt. Dick Hyan was relying on to get him an emergency furlough, just up and died. "Such is life; was Just up and died. "Such is lifeyma the sole comment Ryan would release to Air-O-Mech...Sgt. Lowell Stwart, just returned from Richmond Va., to see one of his many loves, returned to bis deat with work with and under to his desk with much vim and vigor, so much in fact it was surprising to the rest of the orderly room gang ... To all instructors who have left we would like to say we wish they could remain, but as the French would have it, "C'est la guerre," or somethin g like that ... Ffc Yoe Ballando is sho ing and he is very proud in so doing pictures of his little son, just a few weaks old. How does it feel to be a pop, Moel"

Recently at one of Eddie Mader's boxing shows at the 1100-block Bob was induced (pretty easily) to act as second for some of the would be punchers and he has a contentedուլե look on his face ever since. The fact. that he has won his bet with Dave Chernow was incidental; the amack of leather on flesh was enough satisfy Robbie.

Word has been received from Mi-ami Beach OCS that Cpl. Johnny Highlander, who is there, is finding the going pretty tough, but he seems happy in the knowledge that he is bound to make the grade, and the outfit's sure rooting for Johnny.

The squadron's dancing department suffered a crippling blow dur-ing the past week when Charlie Azzarelli and Dick James, both bugs of the genus jitter, departed, Charlie to another outfit on the post and Dick on DS.

7th ARMY AIR FORCES BAND By M/Sgt. C. H. Day

Warrant Officer Freeman L. Russell, bandleader, is developing a singing band as well as a playing band. "Down on the Chio," and the "Caisson Song" are the beginning in that respect.

Pvt. Barbieri (junior) got his pocket full of water. Me was really mystified, while some of the fellows were not. Junior has promised to never play pranks again.

Seeing Pvt. Winer with his silver cornet in his hand is quite a common sight these days. He can also direct traffic.

There are plans under way to in-crease the band to 150 musicians... This will make possible the funct ioning of the two bands simultane -ously, and several more dance orch-estras. There are also possibilit-ies of a male chorus, and some glee club singing.

In connection with the band in-In connection with the cand in-crease, all men not going to school are eligible to become members of the band, if they meet the qualif -ications either as handmen or dance orchestra men. Hembers of the band will be permanent party.
