

SERVICE CLUB ACTIVITIES

May 23 - 1500 Varieties 2000 Everybody Sing!

May 24 - 1400 Music At its Best! 1930 Varieties On the Air

May 25 - 1600 Everybody Singl

May 26 - 1/00 Music at its Best 1930 Quiz - On the Air

May 27 - 1500 Auditions 1600 Group Singing

May 28 - 1930 Auditions 1930 Broadcast 2000 Dance

THEATRE PO 1 - Performances at 1500 1800 and 2000. THEATRE NO 2 - Performances at 1930

May 22 - "I Escaped from the Gestapo" Dean Jagger - John Carradine

May 23-24 "Cx-9ow Incident" Henry Fonda - Mary Hughes

May 25 - "Tonight we raid Calais" John Sutton -Annabella

May 26 - DOUBLE FRATURE "Shantytown" Mary Lee
"Air Raid Wardens" Laurel %

May 27 - "They Came to Blow up American" George Sanders - Anna Sten

Way 29 - "Suckskin Frontier" Richard Dix - Jare ... yatt

May 30 - "Cowboy in Manhattan" il Frances Langford

May 24 - 2000 Informal Night Dance

May 25 - 2030 Song Recital By Margaret Whitting-ton

May 26 - 2000 Movies

May 27 - 2000 Dance - Post Band

May 28 - 2000 Bingo - Prize phone call home

May 29 - 2000 Dance - Wm Street Cym Post Orchestra

May 30 - 1600 Song Fest 2000 Movies

Soldiers can borrow cameras, sports equipment and other things needed, at the desk of the USO.

NEWS ARGUS

daily column appearing in the Goldsboro News Argus carries daily news happenings of Seymour Johnson Field. The column is prep-ared by the Public Relations Office.

"Want a shampoo for your hair," asked the barber as he finished trim ming the GI's head.

"Do what you want to with it," answered the GI. "There it is - all over the floor."

SONG LEADERS.

AIR-O-MECH ON THE AIR, a revived and revised radio program newly ved and revised radio profile arranged is being presented weekly, arranged in John 1045 to arranged is being presented severy sunday morning from 1045 to 1100 by two staff members of Camp Newspaper.

The program which is presented through the courtesy of the dBCR Radio Station in Goldsboro, is over the Tobocco Network of the Mutual Proadcagting System.

A wide variation of news taking in schadrons, individual names and field-wide happenings is given by the two camp newspaper commentators. If your name or squadron appears in the Air-C-Hech, listen in to hear your news broadcast over the air.

JOHNSON FIELD RADIO I ROGRAM Mon. - 1950 - "Flying High"

Mon. Thru Sun. from 1,30 to 1400 Seymour Johnson Field Hows Sun. - 1045 - "Air-O-Mech on the Air

"Flying High," the weekly va-riety show produced by the Radio Division of Special Service, went over the Tobacco Network airwaves Monday night. It was broadcast be-fore an anthusiastic audience at the lost Service Club.

Featured performers included Sgt Vincent Flair, singing songs in the manner he used while with Johnny Long's Orchestra; comedy by pvt Ar-

THE WINNERS

Seymour Johnson Field's contest - that among the squadrons was a "howling" success at the end of the first week, according to life Donald Wachs, Cpl Tomaset-and Fic Sebald accepted awards for their singing squadrons from Lt.

Lt. George Burris, officer in charge Squadrons taking top honors were the 794th, the 36th, and the 801st TSS.

Burris.

It was just the beginning of a song contest and program expected to provide a new stimulus for the Men this week were singing in theatres prior to the start of the main program, enroute in formation in Day Rooms and at other locations where a singing leader could start them raising their voices.

tie Conroy, former Broadway funny man; and the Post Dance Orchestra, directed by Cpl Howard Brey.

Sgt Alex Karanikas read his "The Little White Crosses In Tunisia," printed in this week's issue of the Air-O-Mech; Cpl James Face contributed a tone on his zy-lophone, while Cpl Freddie Wolf gave out with some hot boogle woogie on the piano. Sgt William Kunitsof was Master of Ceremonies. Kuz-

Cpl Johnny Grant has returned to the air from WGBR to give the Seymour Johnson news Monday through Priday at 1330.

Many a happy soldier emerges from this building with a big grin on his face. He has in all probability just finished calling long distance to his mother or his best girl.

When you feel low and blu not stop in at the Service Club brary and read a good book. For the few months, books have been filing in in brand new books that bring you understanding and knownledge as well as enjoyment

The Library custodians still boast that it's the coolest place on the field, and little more can be asked for then a cool spot and a good book.

Some of the latest and newest books to hit the racks of the library books. ary are several of the current best sellers: "The Forrest and the Fort" sellers: by Harvey Allen, author of "Anthony Adverse"; "Gidion Planish" by Sinclair Lewis, "Cresten Carnival" Fra-nces Keyes; "Mommy's Bank Accounts" Catherine Forbes.

For those who enjoy stories about dogs, a story that equals "Lad a Dog" has just hit the stands entitled "Cute as Can Be" of which the publishers believe will be the "top dog in it's field."

The 796th had a well managed enjoyable dance May 14. Orchide the men, who have proven that "gal-lantry isn't dead."

The stag line functioned as none ever seen at the Service Club Every man managed to get a dance with many pretty girls available The Girls Service Club is planning a June Prom to be held in the Service Club is planning a June Prom vice Club Tuesday, June 1.It is the desire of the club to feature the college and universities represented on the Fost. Stop at the Infor-mation Desk if you would like to nave your college colors displayed and your college song included in the medley of College Airs.

The Sunday afternoon shows are still well attended and greatly enjoyed. Artic Conroy is Master of Ceremonies and is doing an excellejob in providing fun not only r soldiers, but also for their for guests.

The Service Club holds a real "Homey" atmosphere since the curtains and other things have been put up. With the varm days bring-ining about the want of refreshments the ice cream counter is constantly busy. The girls are to be compli-mented on their fine work at the counter.

When "Gabriel toots his horn", Groves toots his whistle.

The most popular radio program in Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron is the program of news commentator Gabriel Heater.

Five minutes to nine each night Sgt. John Groves, charge of the Day Room, blows his whistle for ardent listeners of the program to come running. Crowds gather around the small radio, while Groves checks the roll.

The program has become more or less, part of the men's routine and any noise in the Day Room during the program is quick to be arrested the program is quick to be arrested by Sgt. Crowes. Yells of Grove can be heard nightly for the men to gather, and as yet, no one, has been reported absent. However, as soon as the pro-gram is over, the fellows clear the rooms Groves calls it the "Nine of clock Moves Foom." o'clock News Room,"