BOXERS THRILL CROWD AT ARENA

The recent boxing show brought about another grand showing of determination and fight. The card, although, not as well matched as previous "fight night" provided plenty of action for the crowded Sports Arena where they were held.

On several occasions, the bouts became quite humorous when several of the boxers put on a display that left the crowd spell-bound. During one of the fights, the losing contestant actually ran around the ring, with his adversary hot on his heels.

One knock-out was scored during the night, when Pfc Eugene Willard, 145 pound class, of the 902nd TSS knocked Pfc Carl Graves, of the 900th TSS, in the waning seconds of the last round.

RESULTS

Pfc Victor Flynn, 185, 798th TSS, decided Pfc Clarence Cook, 180, of 799th TSS; Pvt James Eisenback, 133 of 800th TSS won over Pfc Chet Collins, 135, 36th TSS; Pfc Armond Larivee, 160, 36th TSS, defeated S/Sgt Alphonso Steere, 162, 36th TSS; Pfc Eugene Willard, 145, 802nd TSS, won (KO) over Pfc Carl Graves, 145, of 800th TSS; Pfc Ray McGhee, 157, decided Pvt Jack Imburga, 152, 800th TSS; Pfc William Simmons, 158, 798th TSS, won over Pfc Robert Keifer, 160, 793 TSS; Pfc Curtis Shope, 120, 791st TSS, won over Pfc Russell Chapman, 118, of the 799th; Pfc David Smith, 157, of 798, won over Pvt Augusta Simon, 155, of 80th Avn; Pfc Ray Eyster, 185, of 794 won over Pfc Phillip Bennett, 230, of 802 TSS.

MURRAY STRIKES OUT 13 MEN IN FIVE INNINGS

Pitching the best game the exhibition schedule has seen as yet "Fireball" Frank Murray of the 798th struck out thirteen men in five innings while leading his team to a 6 to 0 triumph over the Lt. Ricci's Medics last Wednesday. Murray, an AM student, gave up one hit and a walk during the five frames.

Murray, who hails from Boston, has five seasons of pro ball behind him. The 21 year old southpaw achieved his best record last season with the Savannah club in the Sally League. His totals at the close of the season were 13 won and 7 lost.

Frankie is a chattel of the Atlanta Club of the Southern Association. After the war is over he hopes to use the Crackers as the first rung of the ladder to the big time.

In its first outing of the year last Wednesday the 798th unveiled a powerful southpaw in Fireball Frank Murray who hurled them to a 6 to 0 whitewash of the Medics. The Medics, however, were not dormant for long. They made a fine comeback featuring good pitching and tight defense play to nose out the Physical Training outfit 2 to 1.

The club that has looked the best to date is Capt. Marsden's hard-hitting 802nd contingent. Featuring Roy Watkins' southpaw slants and a well-balanced attack the 802 has captured all three of its games. In last week's Sunday game, the 799th resulted in a thrilling 7 to 4 victory. Watkins stopped the fighting 799th three times with the bases loaded.

Next week's exhibition schedule calls for a game every day. The action should be fast and polished during this final opportunity for practice play. All games will be played on the Medic diamond.

PFC LEAVER ENTERS HALL OF FAME

PFC Leaver of the 36th T.S.S. entered the "door-way of baseball fame" when he pitched a no-hit and no-run game.

Battling a determined 10th Academic, Pfc Leaver gave vent to stored energy of real pitching ability and fanned 16 batters in 7 innings. Only two men ever reached 1st base, one on an error and the other on a walk.

Leaver is the first to enter the "hall of fame" this season at Seymour Johnson Field.
