IN "BY-GONE" DAYS.

Things That Happened 33 Years Ago in Town and Vicinity.

December 24, 1891.—Miss Mary Arrington, of Enfield, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Pope.

Miss Kate Prescott returned home Monday from a visit to Petersburg.

Mr. Charles Emry is at home from the Horner School to spend the holidays.

Master Carl Pope returned from Raleigh Saturday to spend the holidays.

Mr. W. C. Riddick, now residing in Petersburg, is here spending the holidays.

Miss Annie Powers, who has been at school at Henderson, returned home Thursday.

Mr. Andrew Joyner, who has been on a visit to relatives here, returned to New York last week.

Miss Manie Snead left last Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents in Fork Union, Va.

Rev. J. A. Green preached his first sermon in this place Sunday morning, and his congregation was delighted with it.

Dr. R. O. Burton, D. D., died at his home about five miles from this place, on Thursday last, the 17th inst., after an illness of about two weeks, in the 81st year of his age. Dr. Burton was born in Campbell county, Va., on June 30th, 1811. Dr. Burton was buried Friday afternoon at "Poplar Grove," the old Joyner home- stead. The services were conducted by the Rev. S. D. Adams, Presiding Elder of this district, assisted by Revs. W. L. Cunningham, J. N. Cole, R. P. Troy, J. M. Rhodes, A. McCullen and W. W. Rose.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the Baptist church Mr. H. B. Harrell was united in marriage to Miss Annie B. Pope, the Rev. W. B. Morton, officiating. At the hour named the organ pealed forth the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bridal party entered the church proceeding alternately in each aisle as follows: Mr. C. P. Rodwell and Mr. E. L. Hayward, ushers; Mr. J. A. Johnson and Miss Lizzie Biddell; Mr. Jimmie Howard and Miss Mary Arrington; Mr. O. W. Pierce and Miss Kate Tillery; Mr. Charles Emry and Miss Blanche Allen.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED.

HALIFAX, N. C., January 4, 1925.

Miss Elizabeth Brown Coppedge delightfully entertained at her home in Halifax on December 30th, in honor of her cousins, Miss Katherine King, of Lexington, Ky., and Miss Edith Creel, of Aberdeen, N. C. Holiday decorations were used in profusion to beautify the rooms. Receiving at the door was Miss Undine Hux. Every one was asked to register and write a New Year's wish. Miss Annie Louise Coppedge directed them to the cloak room. Master Charles Coppedge carried them to the parlor where games and story telling were enjoyed until 11:30. Music was furnished by the Victrola, while dancing was in the hall. Miss Collier rendered several instrumental selections on the piano.

About 50 were present. Those from out town were: Mr. James Mountcastle and Virginia Pope, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coppedge, Arthur Cochran and Harry Garner, of Weldon, and Miss Emily Joyner and Rebe Collier, of Garysburg. At the last was a guessing contest which was very interesting, after which an attractive Christmas ice course was served by Misses Pope and Coppedge.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

They say the stock market is running wild, but it won't be half as wild as some of the fellows who are now trying to keep up with it will be a little later on.

SPRITLY SPARKS.

Gathered Here and There and Everywhere.

The good auto drivers do not die young—but they make a lot of others do so.

A man of few words hasn't any business trying to solve these new cross-word puzzles.

A Seattle dancer fell and broke her nose. She must have been doing the "aviation glide."

A thrifty man thinks he is a good spender, but that isn't a modern girl's idea of a good spender.

After all, it's the fathead and not the overhead that makes it cost so much to run the government.

China has recognized Russia, but it's a question now of how long China is going to recognize herself.

Don't call a man a liar just because he says he never had a fight with his wife. Maybe he's a bachelor.

Some folks follow the old adage about keeping the saw in the log, but they keep it too still for business.

Political differences are not hurting America. It's the political difference that does the greatest harm.

There's one secret most Weldon wives never keep from their husbands, and that is their opinion of them.

A lot of people will be unhappy in heaven when they find they can not pass any laws or institute any reforms.

Sooner or later every man finds out that it's just about as hard to get along without a woman as it is with one.

We heard a Weldon man say yesterday that they call it a "bumper crop" when the prices bump the farmer.

Have you noticed that some fellows put in more energy shirking than they would need to put in working?

It doesn't do any good for Weldon parents to worry over their children—all they do is worry their children by it.

It has been our observation that the honeymoon ends this day and time when the collectors start coming to the house.

Asking for a match has started many a conversation when a fellow couldn't think of anything to say about the weather.

We sometimes feel that a good many divorces could be avoided if the cooking schools of the country had more scholars.

Every now and then we read about a man who tries for a hero medal and winds up by making a darned fool of himself.

The auto driver who hesitates at the railroad crossing says goodbye to the caboose instead of howdy-do to the undertaker.

The principal difference between a cow chewing her cud and a girl chewing gum is that the cow can always look unconcerned.

We've come to the conclusion that the trouble with the average Weldon man is that he considers himself above the average.

There are a lot of great men in this country, but few who can keep from looking silly when being photographed for the movies.

Up in Maine a woman captured a deer in her front yard. Here in Weldon quite a few girls capture dears in their front rooms.

Years ago the "full dinner pail" was a popular slogan in this country, but the present generation seems to favor the "full gas tank."

Who among us in Weldon can remember when all men wore suspenders and when they occasionally found a man in this country for murder?

There are people in Weldon who can show you your faults with much pleasure as if they were pointing out the sights of the town to a stranger.

"When I was a boy," says Uncle Luke, "it wasn't so hard to locate the seat of childish troubles. Father usually could locate it with a razor strap.

After some g'ls have wiped the dust off the piano and cleaned the keys they are so exhausted that they have to sit down and let mother finish the housework.

Most Weldon men who get a circular from a fake stock-selling concern would give the price of a share of the stock to find out who sent in their names.

CHARMING SOCIAL EVENT.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pierce Entertained a Large Number of Friends on New Year's Eve.

One of the most charming social events of the holiday season was enjoyed when Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pierce entertained a large number of friends on New Year's Eve at their home on Washington avenue. The steady downpour of rain at the appointed hour, nine o'clock, served only to accentuate by contrast the charming glow of hospitality which greeted the guests upon entering. The entire lower floor was thrown en suite for the occasion and from drawing room, library, music room, dining room, solarium and halls glowing fires, softly shaded lights, cheerful garlands and greens and the sparkling twinkling of myriad Christmas tree decorations beamed their welcome.

The guests were greeted at the door by the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pierce, assisted by Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Poe. They were then invited by Miss Kate Garrett into the solarium where amid a bower of ferns and growing plants delicious punch was served by Mrs. W. J. Ward and Mrs. L. C. Draper.

So genuine was the hospitality, so congenial the atmosphere that the guests felt free to wander at will among the rooms engaging in casual, or frivolous or serious conversation as occasion and temperament prompted.

Eventually interest centered around the piano when Mrs. W. T. Shaw and Miss Garrett began playing some of the old favorites and soon all the guests were having the time of their lives as they joined in singing "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," "Wait for the Wagon," "Sweet Cenevieve," "Polly Wolly Doodle," and other favorites, both ludicrous and sentimental. Several charmingly rendered vocal solos by Mrs. R. T. Daniel were particularly enjoyed.

Shortly before the passing of the old year, the guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. T. C. Harrison and Mrs. O. W. Pierce presided most gracefully in serving delicious ices in Christmas colors with cakes and mints. Misses Virginia Turner, Virginia Green, Betty Boney and Elizabeth Allen, four lovely girls of the younger set, assisted in serving the guests. Later they brought in and deposited on the table a variegated assortment of delightful imported favors in the shape of unique paper hats and head dresses, and an assortment of toy musical instruments and horns and whistles. Each guest chose the hat and the instrument which most appealed to him, and when twelve o'clock struck the New Year was welcomed in by a discord of strange sounds as George Washington playing an accordion departed with Winged Hermer piping merrily on a whistle, and other combinations equally ludicrous.

At a late hour the guests were again assembled in the solarium for a farewell glass of punch and toasts to the New Year. As they were leaving, the guests all grouped themselves around the open fireplace and sang heartily and just a trifle wistfully at parting, the old time favorite, "Goodnight Ladies."

Included in Mr. and Mrs. Pierce's guest list were a number of people prominent in social circles of Weldon, Halifax, Roanoke Rapids and Jackson.

LOWER HALIFAX TO SHIP CAR OF HOGS.

First to Go Forward This Year Was Sent From Palmyra Tuesday.

By C. E. Littlejohn, Halifax County Agent.

The first car of hogs to move from Lower Halifax County this year was loaded by B. B. Everett, Woodstock Farms, Palmyra, on last Tuesday. This car was a solid car of Hampshires and will be the second car of Hampshires that Mr. Everett has shipped in the past six months.

Already there are seven cars of hogs listed with the County Agent for shipment by the middle of March and there should be several more cars listed in the next two weeks.

Pork is now bringing the highest price for the time of year that it has brought since the big slump in 1920. A short corn crop in the corn belt is causing this high price, and these prices will continue until another crop of corn is made.

The above car was sold for eleven and one half cents hard pork basis and will be marketed in Baltimore.

There are a number of farmers having shoats weighing around one hundred and twenty-five pounds that are too small to kill and these hogs could be fed for a month or so and sold for a nice price.

COASTAL HIGHWAY, Both "30" and "40" Routes Adopted.

Wilmington, Jan. 5.—State highway routes 40 and 30, both of which touch Wilmington, have been officially adopted as routes of the South Atlantic Coastal Highway, according to a telegram received by L. P. Davis, secretary of the Warsaw chamber of commerce, from Fred G. Ward, secretary-manager of the South Atlantic Coastal Highway Association, of Brunswick.

This highway extends from Maine to Key West, Florida, through Washington, D. C. As stated by Mr. Ward at a recent banquet in his honor at Wallace, "Five hundred thousand automobiles would traverse this highway annually, to Miami, Florida."

News of the adoption of Route 40 will be learned with pleasure by all towns and cities along its way, and it is especially pleasing to the citizens of Weldon.

The movement received the hearty support of civic organizations in Eastern Carolina counties, and much credit is due them for this accomplishment which will be of untold benefit to the entire east.

LARKIN-SHAW.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney R. Alley, Washington, D. C., was the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon, December 30th ult., at 4 o'clock, when Miss Pattie Shaw became the bride of Mr. James Vann Larkin, Rev. Clifton K. Ray officiating.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Lillian Pierce Williams, niece of the bride, played "Humoresque." Then, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered the parlor, which was attractively decorated in ferns and poinsettias. First came the bridesmaid, Miss Mignon Smith. Next followed the groom with his son, Dr. E. W. Larkin, of Weldon. Then came the bride on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Sidney Alley. The bride was beautiful in a straightline, tunic frock of brown crepe satin, the tunic heavily embroidered in lovely shades of brown and tan, with accessories to match. She carried a large bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The impressive ring ceremony was used, during which time Miss Williams played softly "Souvenir."

Only the immediate members of the family were present.

The bride is the beautiful and talented sister of Mrs. Sidney Alley, and for many years a leader in the social life of Weldon.

The groom is a retired business man, well known over the State of North Carolina.

The couple will be at home after Jan. 10, 1925, in Weldon, N. C.

TOTAL ECLIPSE.

Moon To Pass Between Earth and Sun—To Be Only Partial Eclipse Here.

On the morning of Saturday, January 24, there will be a total eclipse of the sun visible in the eastern United States and Canada along a path extending southeast from central Minnesota through Long Island. It will be visible as a partial eclipse through a wide area of the western world. So important is this event, the only one of the kind which will be seen by millions of Americans, that the American Astronomical Association urges a stop of all ordinary activities during the eclipse, which in many regions will be seen in the twentieth century.

The scientific world is assembling its forces for observation along strategic points along the path of darkness, but in addition this eclipse will come under the observation of army of radio fans. Cloudy weather can spoil the chances for the men with telescopes, but if a radio set adorns your living room you may observe the eclipse with your ears. Radio is going to play a leading role in this celestial performance. Not that any messages are looked for from that solar parent of ours who has a temperature of 10,000 degrees Fahrenheit, but it is possible some change may be noted in the magnetic and electric conditions of the earth. Static may be effected by the eclipse in some marked way.

John Jones listening in at his receiver at Mackinac, Michigan, or Tom Smith in New York may hear a rumble or a hush that will herald a great new discovery. On the other hand, he may not.

SPECIAL TERM.

Special term of the Superior court convened at Halifax Monday for the trial of civil cases only. Several of our citizens are attending court as witnesses.

A CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express to our neighbors and many friends our sincere thanks and appreciation for their prompt response and assistance in putting out the fire at our home.

MR. AND MRS. W. L. KNIGHT.

LARGE PECAN ACREAGE.

About fifty acres of pecan trees are being put out in the Scotland Neck section this winter and the varieties that are being planted are Stuart, Schley and Success.

The following men of that section have either ordered trees or already planted them:

J. B. Hall, 14 acres; J. H. Alexander, Jr., 10 acres; Dr. O. F. Smith, 10 acres; J. B. Edwards, Jr., 10 acres; Hugh Johnson, 5 acres; Dr. Thurman Kitchin, 1 acre.

TREE DESTROYED.

The continuous rains together with the ice, destroyed one of the beautiful shade trees in the park last week.

FAMOUS TENOR HEARD BY LOCAL FANS.

Radio Carries McCormick's Wonderful Voice Plainly To Weldon People.

The many Weldon radio fans heard John McCormick sing for the first time on last Thursday and declared that the voice of the famous tenor "came in" as clear as a bell in his first effort over the radio. The grand opera star sang from station WEAF New York, and seven other stations assisted in the broadcasting.

Accompanying Mr. McCormick were Lucrezia Bori, soprano, the Shannon quartet, and the Salon orchestra.

Mr. McCormick wound up the program by singing "Mother Machree" and "Alone" and then wished his thousands of hearers all over the country a "Happy New Year." The performance was unique in that the singing of "Alone" was the first time Mr. McCormick ever gave an audience, radio, theatrical, phonograph, or otherwise an opportunity to hear him sing this touching masterpiece.

SO THERE!

"Hub!" he snorted, after reading the account of the wedding. "Always the 'blushing bride'! That's the bunk!"

"Oh, no, it isn't," replied the Mrs. Sweetly. "Just consider the kind of men women have to marry."

NOT A CHANCE.

"Just let me have one—just one!" he begged. "I'll never tell a soul."

She gazed on him pityingly.

"No, Gerald," she replied, firmly. "Mamma has every one of cigarettes counted, and she knows I smoke a different brand."

HUBBY'S HEAD.

"Your husband has a clever-looking head. I suppose he knows practically everything."

"Sh-h—he doesn't even suspect anything!"

AT 3 O'CLOCK IN THE MORN.

Weldon: "So you really believe that prohibition is doing some good to the country?"

Shelton: "Yes. For one thing, it's killed off most of the street-corner quartets of 'Sweet Adeline.'"

BRYAN NOW MEMBER OF SCIENTIFIC BODY.

William Jennings Bryan, whose dissent from the theory of evolution of man came in a paper read at the current meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, became a member of the association Monday.

Mr. Bryan's check for the $5 membership fee, was received by mail and there was no indication that the new member expected to attend the present sessions. It was rumored earlier that he might put in an appearance after Dr. E. L. Rice, of Ohio Wesleyan University, had read a paper before the zoological section taking issue with Mr. Bryan's views on evolution.
