also emphasized the importance of taking an inventory of farm machinery and order needed parts and to sell all scrap metals and other waste to a licensed waste materials dealer for National Defense.
Special emphasis was further made of the importance of family cooperation, using as an illustration the Adams family, who paid off a farm mortgage by all working together on a "Live at Home" program. Mrs. Wheeler asked the members to continue selling at market and to keep a yearly record.
When the meeting had been con-

These Times Of Stress . . . Relax

Everyone needs diversion. This is particularly true in times of strain as at present. One form of diversion that is accessible to all is the movies. Going to the movies is a splendid antidote for tension. The choice of screen entertainment is so varied as to provide just the pick-up you need. When nerves are tense, go to see a movie show and relax.
