Pledge Your Faith

...by RUTH TAYLOR

If you glory in the past - If the story of the great trek of the freedom hungry people, of their turning from the tyrannies of Europe to an unknown continent; if the saga of their carving a home out of the virgin wilderness, of the rise of this rich land of ours, whose very name - the United States of America - breathes of the effort of men to work together in mutual understanding and cooperation; if these tales move you, give you inspiration and courage; if you feel the glory of the past heritage of this country of ours -

Then prove your faith. If you can fight - fight. If you are needed for defense work - work to the extent of your strength and ability - and then some. And whatever you do - help supply the sinews of war.

Pledge to buy U. S. Saving Bonds regularly.

If you hope for the future - If you wish to see the dawn of a new day when the Four Freedoms become the basis for a new world order of free men; if you wish the world of tomorrow to offer to your children an opportunity greater than your own for growth and knowledge and service; if you want to be certain that your children and your children's children may choose, without fear, to seek God in the way they choose for themselves and not as some over lord dictates; if you wish the sacrifices of those who paved the way for you, added to your sacrifices of today to make smooth the path for those to follow, so that the law of love may be fulfilled and the children of the future grow up, unafraid, in a world of brotherhood - Then pave the way now! Do your share in fighting and working for this country of ours - the last hope of free men. Prove your faith - invest in yourselves - for this country of ours is not a thing apart, it is you and me and our neighbors. Pave the way to a new future - fight, work, pray - and pay.

Pledge to buy U. S. Saving Bonds regularly.
