"Twilight Reveries"

It is always such a nice thing to feel that one is needed, and wanted, and loved, isn't it? And when true love comes along, it doesn't need nor want affected demonstrations. No, true love is there in a single glance across a crowded room, there when cool, soft hands reach out to touch a heart memory in another's hair.

"ALL OF ME"

Need not speak for you to know my heart is yours, and yours are mine; need not say, "I love you so, and want you for my own."

Need not show by word or sign the ecstasy you bring to me; need not write one single line of lover's poetry.

Need only recall once more a kiss we shared . . . you know why. I made me yours forevermore, my lips, my heart, and I!

Dorothy Ballenger.

THE LUNCH BOX ENLISTS

MANY A MAN, these days, has swapped his brief case for a proudly carried lunch box. And many that have carried one for years are finding that their wives have learned a lot of new things about lunch-box nutrition. Lunch boxes that go to work and lunch boxes that go to school have enlisted—because UNITED STATES NEEDS US STRONG!

- Plan box lunches to round out the day's other meals; make good use of leftovers.
- Select foods that are easy to handle.
- Vary fillings and breads for the sandwiches, and don't scrimp when you spread the butter or margarine!
- Use enriched and whole-grain breads for mineral and vitamin content.
- Something hot in a vacuum bottle . . . canned soup containing milk or home-made cream soup left from last night's dinner.
- A small covered jar of cole slaw or fruit salad, and something crisp wrapped in wax paper—carrot sticks, celery, lettuce, radishes, onions.
- Vary the raw-fruit-and-cookies routine with a baked custard or gelatine dessert in its own individual mold.

Just remember when you pack that lunch box . . . this is no picnic. UNITED STATES NEEDS US STRONG!

Your electric refrigerator keeps a variety of good lunch foods . . . good!

U.S. NEEDS US STRONG

EAT NUTRITIONAL FOOD

Every day, eat this way

- MILK and MILK PRODUCTS . . . at least a pint for everyone—more for children—or cheese or evaporated or dried milk.
- ORANGES, TOMATOES, GRAPEFRUIT . . . or raw cabbage or salad greens—at least one of these.
- GREEN or YELLOW VEGETABLES . . . one big helping or more—some raw, some cooked.
- OTHER VEGETABLES, FRUIT . . . potatoes, other vegetables or fruits in season.
- BREAD and CEREAL . . . whole grain products or enriched white bread and flour.
- MEAT, POULTRY or FISH . . . dried beans, peas or nuts occasionally.
- EGGS . . . at least 3 or 4 a week, cooked any way you choose—or in "made" dishes.
- BUTTER and OTHER SPREADS . . . vitamins-rich fats, peanut butter, and similar spreads.

In Memoriam
MRS. J. A. JOHNSTON

We, the members of the Weldon Baptist W. M. Society desire to express appreciation of the life and work of one of our cherished members, Mrs. J. A. Johnston, who fell asleep February 19th, 1942.

She was for many years a devoted member of the Weldon Baptist church. The cause of missions held a warm place in her heart. She was a great spirit, possessing sound wisdom and judgment, tempered with understanding, always liberal to the causes fostered by her church. Her joyous optimistic nature carried cheer to her friends.

The world is richer because of such spirits and the Kingdom is built upon such lives.

Therefore, be it resolved;
FIRST, That we bow in submission to God's will, knowing that He doeth all things well.
SECOND, That to the bereaved family we extend our deepest sympathy.
THIRD, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family and to the Biblical Recorder and to the Roanoke News for publication.

Miss Theresa Dickens,
Miss Pearle Harris,
Mrs. A. S. Allen,
Committee.
