KERR-PERRY
The wedding of Miss Polly Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Perry, to Lieutenant David Kerr was solemnized Saturday evening, March 6th in Leland, Florida. The Rev. Grady Snowzer was the officiating minister.

For her wedding the bride wore a suit of violet wool with accessories of brown and a shoulder spray of gardenias.

The bride is a graduate of the Weldon High School and Norfolk College and prior to her marriage did secretarial work at the Naval Base in Norfolk.

Lt. Kerr is in the Navy Air Corps and at present is stationed in Orange City, Fla., where he and Mrs. Kerr will make their home in the La Verne Apts.

they go,
Forward into battle row by row,
We can buy more War Stamps
To help them on their way,
To help them speed up Victory
For the good old U. S. A.
Patsy Ann Stephenson, Grade 7.

Buy War Stamps every week,
That's a good motto to keep,
On to victory we must go,
Buy a war bond, and don't be slow!
Rachel Rae Reese, Grade 7.

Now that we are in the war
We will fight wherever we are,
We must save all we can
And whip those Japs on sea or land,
Now that the boys have gone to fight
Let's back them up with all our might,
Jesse Lee Padgett, Grade 5.

If you'd like to help our men
Don't stand around and let Japs win,
We can't all go and carry a gun
But we can help make Hitler run,
So hit the enemy where it hurts
Remember the Axis are nothing
but jerks
Buy War Stamps and Bonds!
Allen Peele, Grade 4.

Hit the enemy where it hurts the
worse,
Don't leave your money in your
purse,
V-I-C-T-O-R-Y
Buy a bond and make Japs fly
And if you buy a bond today
In ten years you'll get back more pay.
Willis Maier, Grade 4.

We'll buy War Bonds and Stamps
To pay for a Jeep,
To help put the Japs
And Germans to sleep,
Sonny Myrick, Grade 2.

I will buy stamps every week,
To help America beat the Axis
fleet.
Albert Bragg, Grade 2.

If we want to win this war
We must fight harder than before,
More guns, more planes
Will make old man Hitler complain.
Charles Carr, Grade 3.

Why We Must Buy War Bonds
We must buy War Bonds so our government will have the money to buy supplies for our Army, Navy, and Marines. Our United States has not been bombed yet, and we can keep it that way by

ROANOKE RAPIDS NEWS

Mrs. Henry Ruark and son have returned to Red Springs after visiting her parents here.

Mrs. John Bounds and son of Portsmouth, Va., have returned home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bounds.

Why We Should Buy Stamps And Bonds

Your boys went across,
We can surely "Come across",
Ten per cent each pay day,
Will get the Japs out of the way
We can

Ships, planes, tanks and guns,
Are all needed to throw at the
Huns,
When you hear of our boys at the front,
You wish you could get rid of every Jap runt.
We will.

On Guadalcanal, the Philippines
and New Guinea
Our boys fought and you didn't
lose a penny,
Save your fun 'till this war is won,
In the meantime, keep on buying guns.
We must.
Louis Rabil, Grade 7.

Buy A War Stamp Everyday
Buy a War Stamp everyday.
And when the war is over you can say
That you helped to make the peace
And that you helped the war to cease.

Buy a War Stamp every day,
And you will help the boys come home to stay
And to supply equipment for our fighting men
Who went on the battle field to win.
Marion Tilghman, Grade 7.

Forward into battle that's the way

Mrs. Holmes Honors Daughter-in-law

Mrs. Thomas H. Holmes, Jr. entertained at a beautifully appointed formal tea Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock as a compliment to her daughter-in-law Mrs. Thomas Hall Holmes, III of New York, a recent bride.

Mrs. D. W. Seifert greeted the guests and Mrs. J. S. Selian introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of the hostess, Mrs. Thomas Hall Holmes, III of New York, Mrs. Hugh A. Mozley of Fayetteville, a recent bride and Mrs. Crouch of New Jersey.

Mrs. M. H. Mitchell presided in the sun room and Mrs. Will Norman directed guests into the dining room where they were received by Mrs. W. A. Davis. The dining table was lace-covered and centered with a low bowl of mixed spring flowers in pastel shades, flanked by tall tapers. Mrs. T. C. Harrison poured tea, which was served with sandwiches, other dainties and sweets, by Miss Agnes Gregory and Mrs. Junius Tillery of Halifax, Mesdames N. J. Shepherd, G. H. Nash and Ruth Coppedge.

Approximately 150 called during the hours of receiving.

buying War Bonds and Stamps to furnish those needed supplies to push the Axis back and keep them from our American borders. Every bond and stamp we buy will be a symbol of the freedom that will surely come if we keep buying. The more bonds we buy the sooner the world will get back on its feet, and the sooner our boys will come home again. Every War Bond we buy gives our boys the bullets to "Beat the Japs and Germans to the draw." So keep your chin up and above all—Keep Buying War Bonds!

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"How about joinin' us in a game, Judge?... I'll drop out for a while."
"Sorry, Phil, but I can't today... I'm on my way up to the hospital to see how Frank's wife is coming along. I just dropped by to give you the answer to that question you asked me about synthetic rubber yesterday in the barber shop. I looked it up and found out that the beverage distilling industry's facilities for producing grain alcohol make it possible to include 200,000 tons of rubber from grain in the government's $70,000 ton synthetic rubber program."
"I also verified the fact that no distiller is making whiskey today. They all stopped making whiskey last year and are working night and day, 7 days a week, producing war alcohol for the government... for smokeless powder, chemical warfare materials, medical supplies, as well as for synthetic rubber. It's a mighty good thing these distilleries were in existence ready to do this important job."
