Miss Agnes McGee TRIBUTE

It is with deep sorrow and a sense of great loss that the Mary Pierce Johnson Society of Christian Service records the passing of Miss Agnes McGee.

"Miss Aggie", as we loved to call her, was a loyal member of the Weldon Methodist Church and an active member of this Society. She was one of the most interested members of the Wm. L. Knight Bible Class, always present, always eager to lend a helping hand, always an inspiration to both class and teacher.

She was been sick for the last three or four years and could not attend church services in person, but her joyous expression of the Christian faith is a benediction to all who knew and loved her. She was one of our oldest members and her devoted friends will long cherish the memory of her cheerful attitude and kindly spirit.

"Life's labors ended, as ends the day,
Released from its frame the spirit it flies;
While heaven bends low with praise to say
Blessed is the righteous when she dies."

There is no true greatness apart from simple goodness. The great influence of this ripened Christian life, lived among us, will continue to have its influence upon those of us who were privileged to work with her and love her. Thus we pause to pay a tribute to love and gratitude for the life of our beloved member who lived among us and whose memory we shall always cherish.

"She is not dead - she has but passed
Beyond the mists that blind us here,
Into a new and larger realm
Of a serener sphere."

Mrs. J. W. Pierce,
Mrs. Wm. L. Knight.
