ROSS-MOORE
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Story Moore of Weldon announce the engagement of their daughter Frances Erroll to Lt. Joseph Albert Ross U. S. M. C. R. of San Diego, California, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ross of Edenton formerly of Weldon. No date has been set for the wedding.

DICKENS-PITTMAN
The wedding of Miss Estelle Frances Pittman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cephus Pittman of Portsmouth, Va. and Roanoke Rapids, N. C. to Corporal Ira Glenn Dickens, son of Mrs. Charles Henry Dickens and the late Mr. Dickens of Weldon, N. C. took place Monday evening at eight o'clock at the Baptist Parsonage in Weldon, N. C.

The vows were spoken in the living room which was softly lighted with candles. Rev. W. W. Finlator was the officiating minister, using the ring ceremony in the presence of a few friends.

The bride wore a two piece dress of victory gray crepe with black accessories and a corsage of orchids. She is a graduate of Aurelian Springs High School and has been employed for sometime at Leggett's Department Store.

ANGLIN-McGEE
The marriage of Miss Bernice McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McGee of Arlington Va. formerly of Weldon, to Murray Edson Anglin of the United States Navy son of Mrs. W. A. Anglin and the late Mr. Anglin of Weldon was solemnized Tuesday December 7th in the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Frank L. Snyder officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle Joe N. Grizzard was attired in a dress of winter white wool with accessories of red and her flowers were white sweetpeas and red roses.

Mr. Anglin is now, stationed in Savannah, Ga.

State College Hints
For Homemakers

Don't throw away those chicken feet. There's plenty of good flavor in the bones. Scald the feet for a few minutes and then peel off the scaly yellow skin. Next, simmer the feet in a saucepan, with water to cover, for 45 minutes. Strain the broth and use it for added richness in chicken gray, soup or with chicken and noodles. The broth can also be substituted for part of the milk in making white sauce for creaming leftover chicken.

Fat is so precious in these days of rationing that every drop should be used to the best advantage. Hens generally have a large amount of fat. This fat, after being rendered, is delicious when used as a shortening for biscuits, pies, some puddings and bread.

Chicken fat should be used in the same quantity as any other fat.

Scrambled eggs can be turned into a hearty low-point main dish by adding to them leftover meats such as chicken, bacon, hamburger or scraps of a roast. Tuna or salmon, whether leftovers or not, can be added also. Cooked, chopped green peppers, canned tomatoes, and a tablespoon of cream or top milk for each egg used, stretches eggs farther and gives a smoother "scramble."

There is no need to waste even crumbs of bread. Save all crusts or pieces which are left in the bread box. Then when the stove oven is cooling after use, place the bread scraps on a flat cookie sheet or pie tin and allow them to dry in the slightly heated oven.

When crisp, crush the bread with a rolling pin or put it thru a food chopper. Store the crumbs in a metal or glass jar until needed.

HOGS
One hundred pounds of hogs will no longer bring as much money as 10 bushels of corn and hog markets have been glutted. "Save your breeding stock," is the advice of State College swine specialists.

COVER CROP SEED
The USDA has announced a 1944 program for winter cover crop seed which will support prices on hairy vetch, common vetch, crimson clover, and rye grass seeds at levels from 5 to 40 percent higher than last year.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

THERE is now a good choice of meats for the Sunday dinner, with more than in the market, smoked hams and fresh loins of pork available, plenty of chicken, some fowl, and about the same amount of beef that has been offered. There is less veal.

Salads are very much in order, with avocados in abundance. Liberal supplies of iceberg lettuce arriving from the west, pascal celery coming in, and plenty of cabbage. The quality of lettuce is excellent and prices are low. Other vegetables in good supply are Florida string beans, broccoli, kale, spinach, beets and parsnips. Potatoes should still have a place on the menu as often as possible.

Good news for lovers of citrus fruits is that liberal supplies of oranges and grapefruit are arriving in all markets, according to A & P Service for Homemakers. Some California navels are beginning to come in, and are moderately priced. There is a fair supply of eastern and western pears. Celling prices are tending to hold down the amount of apples and grapes on the market.

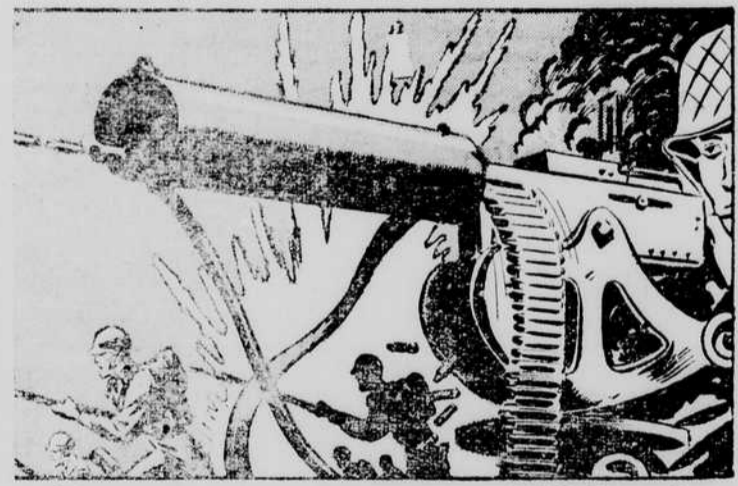

Here are some suggested Sunday dinner menus, based on items available and prevailing prices:

- No. 1
Avocado, Orange and Grapefruit Salad
Chicken a la King
Riced Potatoes
Dressing
Baked Indian Pudding with Ice Cream
Coffee or Tea
- No. 2
Fruit Cocktail
Pot Roast of Beef
Brown Potatoes
Creamed Spinach
Squash Pie
Coffee
- No. 3
Cream of Potato Soup
Roast Leg of Lamb
Turnip Croquettes
Buttered Beets
Stewed Fresh Peas
Coffee or Tea

We can't win the war without the navy; our soldier can't win unless our ships deliver; merchant ships can't deliver unless the home front provides. One important convoy job is flashing signals as this youth is doing in the Battle of the Atlantic. Your equally important job is to continue buying War Bonds until victory. U. S. Treasury Department

Second Christmas after Bataan

Wonder where they're going for Christmas?
Who'll wish them "Merry Christmas"?
What's on their menu for Christmas dinner?
What Christmas gifts will they exchange?
What will they pray for on Christmas Night?
What Christmas memories will haunt their hearts?

- .. the stillness of a snow-robed countryside, and the friendly laughter of free people?
- .. the glitter of acres of show windows, and the holiday bustle of free people?
- .. the stockings hung, the tree trimmed, the kids up at dawn, the presents unwrapped—the carols sung by free people?

How many EXTRA War Bonds are YOU buying this Christmas?
