Miss Nash Honored At Bridge

Miss Frances L. Nash, whose wedding takes place in June, was the inspiration for a lovely bridge party given Tuesday evening by Miss Ernestine Turner and Mrs.

C. R. Turner. Arrangements of roses, peonies and other vari-colored flowers were used in the living room where several progressions were played at three tables.

When scores were totaled Miss Florence Draper was awarded top score prize and Miss Nash was remembered with crystal in her selected pattern. Guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was centered with an arrangement of white roses and other small white flowers and dlanked by tall white tapers in silver holders. Punch, sandwiches cakes and salted nuts were serv-

Have a "Coke"=You're back among friends

... or a way to put soldiers at ease

In its atmosphere of kindliness, home is hospitality headquarters with Welcome so often summed up in three words, Have a "Coke". To a service man it expresses a bond of understanding and friendliness. He hears it quite often at camp-over there as over here. It's one of his ways of saying You're my pal. Around the globe, Coca-Cola is spreading the custom of the pause that refreshes, - has become a symbol of the friendly in many lands. Coca-Cola is the friendly drink to have and serve at home.
