

The Messenger

Volume 1

High Point, North Carolina, Friday, January 31, 1947.

No. 4

22 Receive Service Awards

Pictured above is the group who received service awards at the sixth annual Christmas party. Twenty year emblems went to Clara Black and Maurice M. Ellis; fifteen year buttons to Paul R. Haney, Charles Devinney and Willard C. Mangum; ten year awards to Fronie Byrd, Pat Welborn, Lillie Hendrix, Lee Hardee, and James Geter; and five year pins to Stella Auman, Pauline Purdue, Ella Trivette, Pallie Clapp, Theo Mull, Maude Burrows, Ruth Cornelison, Elizabeth Childs and Minnie Wiley, and five year buttons to Jodie Bull and William Hunsucker. Absent from this group, which represents one hundred and ninety-five years of continuous service, are Ella Trivette and Clara Black who were not present when the picture was made.

Good Housekeeping Plan To Be Initiated

With the completion of the painting of the mill which is now in process, we hope to have a cleaner, brighter, and more attractive place in which to work. Once finished, the responsibility of keeping it that way depends on each one of us.

I think it is apparent to all that, as far as cleanliness is concerned, we could do a much better job than is now being done. This responsibility does not rest merely on the sweepers; it rests on each individual in each department. Coca-Cola bottles, cones, and trash on the floor are a few of the things which can be corrected only with the cooperation of each individual. Waste paper receptacles, and Coca-Cola crates are placed where they

(Continued on Page Four)

Sixth Annual Christmas Party

The sixth annual Christmas party was held December 20th with more people in attendance than at any of the previous parties.

Following introductory remarks by Mr. Harriss, who acted as master of ceremonies, Mr. Morison led the group singing of Christmas Carols with accompaniment by Mrs. Henry V. Koonts, guest organist.

Next followed the drawing of prizes which included five turkeys and a twenty-five dollar war bond.

Turkeys were won by Lula Wade, Alice Chappel, D. A. Goodman, Rufus Marsh, and Raeford Miller, and the war bond went to Donald Gibhardt. Frankly Pat Welborn's hat was the prize of the day, and very becoming to Mr. Morehead, too.

After the awarding of the service pins and buttons, Mr. Noble Praige gave a brief address, and, as everyone left, they were presented with a box of assorted fruits and nuts.