

Not exactly what you'd planned to wear to the prom...

Prom Dates:

Apex High School - May 3rd
Cary High School - May 4th

DWI Jewelry

For some teens, celebrate equals party, and party equals alcohol. In the past, this has left some students with hangovers, embarrassing memories, and in trouble with parents, friends, school authorities, and the police. Don't accept this tragic fate for your children. BECOME A CONCERNED CITIZEN.

There's no such thing as GETTING A TICKET for driving while intoxicated. Here's what you get as an ABSOLUTE MINIMUM for a first offense.

1. Embarrassed as you take a sobriety test on a public road.
2. Take a breath test to determine blood alcohol content.
3. Arrested in a criminal charge of DWI.
4. Handcuffed and placed in a police car.
5. Fingerprinted.
6. Photographed and video-taped.
7. Booked into jail.
8. Your name appears in the newspaper when arrested.
9. Pay bondsman $50 fee for $500 bond minimum.
10. Pay lawyer from $500 to $2,000 for handling case.
11. Appear in court for arraignment.
12. Spend more time in court if trial is held.
13. Court appearance for sentencing.
14. Maximum fine can be $100.
15. Minimum 24 hours community service.
16. Loss of driving privileges for 30 days after conviction.
17. Attend substance abuse assessment and pay $125.
18. Receive a suspended sentence of 24 hours in jail - upon conviction.
19. Have your insurance rates doubled for next three years.
20. Some job applications require you to list convictions.
21. Some employers will not hire you to operate a vehicle.
22. Penalties increase with every arrest.
