Praising teamwork

Town's recreation department dispenses trophies to players

Trophies were given to all of the players in the T-Ball, Pee Wee and Rookie baseball leagues, sponsored by the Morrisville Parks, Recreation and Cultural Resources Department this summer, but they weren't for winning, hitting or fielding. They were for learning teamwork and fundamentals.

"This was strictly an instructional program," said Jimmy E. Huggins, assistant director of the department. "We don't even post game scores. Our objective is to not only teach the fundamentals of the game, but to stress teamwork and fair play."

Director Alan Carroll explained that all of those who took part were given T-shirts and caps. T-Ball was for 5 and 6 year olds, Pee Wee League for those 7 and 8, and Rookie League for 9 and 10 year olds.

Here are the teams and players who took part in the T-Ball League: Braves, coached by Charles Leto. Charlie Leto, Tyler Maynard, Houston Hawley, Jack Pearson, Brooks Beanland, Kyle Holder, I.D. Hefferin, Bo Seymour, Zack Hoffman, Tommy Kaznowski, Kristen Toth, Alex Weitzel, Jake Barney.
