

SMITHFIELD HIGH TIMES

Sherry Creech, Bobbie Beasley, and Mildred Woodard leave their recipe for "snag-a-man soup" to Sue Wood and Betty Jo Watson. Here's hoping they get the same results.

Wynona Smith leaves her head to be placed in the trophy case to remind everyone what might happen to them if they lost theirs.

M. T. Baggett leaves saying:

For a squarer deal
On rounder wheels
See Morton Tew
For that Chevy, new.

Rex and Adolph Langston, will their 34 Ford to anybody who knows the secret combination to the starter, since they are getting a Super Deluxe Cadillac convertible for graduation.

Leon Warren leaves to his speedy, daredevil, colleague P. E. Jones the blue crash helmets and a first aid kit.

Steve Upton wills his right hand never-miss hook shot to someone who really needs it.... Hal King.

Signed on this day May the 6th, 1955 by

Charlotte Edwards
Linda Lee
Joyce King Strickland
Jim Whitehurst
Testators

SENIORS FETED BY CLASS MASCOTS

Justine Blow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Blow, and David Whitehurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Whitehurst, mascots for the Senior Class, entertained the seniors Friday night, April 1, at the Woman's Club.

Each senior was asked to wear an Easter bonnet of original design. After guests arrived an Easter parade was held so the hats could be judged. The prize for the prettiest hat was presented to Charlotte Edwards. The prize for the most original girl's hat was given to Genevieve McLamb and for the most original boy's hat, the prize went to Jerry Joe Stephenson, Dorothy Morgan, Sherry Creech Peterson, Janet Wall, Frank Berry Skinner, Jimmy Moore, and Steve Upton received honorable mention for their hats.

Refreshments consisted of ginger ale and ice cream punch, ribbon pimento cheese sandwiches, chicken salad sandwiches, and assorted open faced sandwiches, ham bis-biscuits, potato chips, mixed pickles, and miniature cup cakes decorated in pastel colors.

Following the refreshment hour, Justine and David gave each senior an Easter favor.

One of the highlights of the evening was a skit, "The Easter Hat Sale", presented by six junior boys dressed as ladies: Johnny Wallace was the saleslady. The customers were Virgil Early as Miss Thomas, John Laughter as Mrs. Wilkins, C. L. Gurganus as Mrs. Glenn, Bill Holland as Miss Dodd and Clifton Johnson as Miss Lewis.

Dressed in pastel raincoats and carrying matching parasols, Sue Wood, Ann Stallings, and Beth Boyette sang "April Showers" accompanied at the piano by Jane Twisdale.

The mascots entertained the seniors by singing "An Umbrella Built for Two" and "Spot". They were accompanied at the piano by Beth Boyette.

Master of ceremonies was Dr. Luby Royall, Jr.