TRUTH, RUMOR, AND GOSSIP

Well, fellow gossipers, I've poked into every nook and cranny this month, and I've come up with some real dandies. More and more new couples are popping up all over. Jimmy G. and Mary Nell, Darby and Sarah, and Joe R. and Susan are some of the cutest couples I've seen in a long while. Homecoming brought forth a wealth of new pairs. Deane and Staton, Diana Bess and Wayne, and Jack and Clyda Lynn all seemed to be perfect matches. Plenty of the old grads were back, too, some with steadies and some stag. Ann S. and Virgil, Beth and Harold, Nancy and Joe Durward, Ann M. and Hal - all looked as if they "could have danced all night." Incidentally, wasn't Ann a beautiful Homecoming Queen?

I declare, we really do have some Romeos in our midst. Melzer M. has certainly been playing the field lately. And they're all mighty cute. It seems Roy Land's having a pretty hard time making up his mind, too. Who'll it be, Roy? Wonder what Harry and Roy are finding in common with Betty and Mary Helen? They only rush to see them before school, at recess, after lunch, and between classes.

Come on, Sally Ann, and give some boys a break. There are plenty who think "You're Sensational!"

Two Smithfield gals seem to be finding plenty down Highway 70 to get their attention. Judy Coats keeps her eye peeled toward Clayton, while Emma keeps the road to Raleigh pretty busy lately.

I heard by the grapevine (better known as the telephone) that Faye B. and Ruthie J. have their eyes turned toward Selma. Gals, you are traitors to the cause!

Seems every time I hear Winnie's name somebody pops up with Kelly ! Wonder what this means?

Wonder why we never see Ann B. on the week-ends? She must hibernate -- or maybe she just has time for Bill!

Well, Betty Mc., who will it be? You surely do keep everybody guessing!

Well, golly -gee my juicy (?) column was short this month -- but how can I snoop around and find gossip, when there's no gossip to find? So get on the ball everybody and keep the rumors flying!
