

SMITHFIELD HIGH TIMES

---

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

The fifty six members of the Smithfield Senior Class, being of exceptionally strong body and average intelligence, do hereby make and publish their Last Will and Testament on this the 5th day of April, 1957.

1. To the faculty we give and bequeath our complete forgiveness for all they have made us suffer, trusting that our forgiveness will exert influence toward a peaceful conscience and mercy on those who follow us.
2. To Mrs. Peele the Senior Class leaves a book entitled "The Subjunctive is Subjunctive to the Subjunctive."
3. Barbara Parrish wills her words, words, words, to Mary Ann Stallings.
4. Third period study hall leaves an isolation booth to Mr. Benton, if he can get in it.
5. Sue Massey bequeaths Sally Ann's dissecting kit to Mary Jo Brown.
6. Beth Boyette leaves her ability at figures to Jean Parker.
7. Jack Taylor wills his brown nosing ability to Darby Wood and he'd better use it.
8. Nancy Moore bequeaths her dimples to Susan Eason.
9. Nancy Pitchi leaves absolutely nothing, she's taking "Sweety Ennis" with her.
10. Harry Woodard wills his speeding tickets to Joe Reed.
11. Janice Edwards bequeaths her forward spot to Phyllis Lee.
12. Jimmy Lee and Edward Patterson leave their hunting licenses to Miss Wayne.
13. To Alvin Peedin and Eugene Woodall as well as the rest of the upcoming bus drivers: Lawrence Langdon, J. W. Coats, Marie Stewart and Danny Hill leave their hopes for a raise in salary.
14. Sally Ann Wood Crocker wills her mystery recipe on how to make an Upside Down Cake turn Topside Up to Mrs. Ramona Cash.
15. Annie Laura Peterson leaves the French class-----
16. Charles Lee bequeaths an open spot on the first string basketball team to Wilt-the-Stilt Highsmith.
17. Norma Kistler leaves printed handbills to be distributed next year to all females in Johnston County stating, Beware of all Johnson boys who drive blue station wagons.
18. Private Billy Lynch leaves his stripe to Alvin Peedin.
19. Howard Mallard regrets to divide his harem between Roy Land and Melzer Morgan.
20. Wayne Hildebrand wills his book "The Power of Negative Thinking" to Tucker Barbour.