

WISH I WAS THERE

Hup, two, three, four---hup, two, three, four---Now they're doing the windmill and I bet those clean uniforms look just great!---Dum, de dum, dum dum---The band must be assembling now. Melzer's hat surely adds to the "football air"-----testing-1-2-3-4-testing---Must not be long now, there goes the announcer. Hear a late car going round the corner. Must be Betty, or is she on time tonight? Wonder if Jerry and Hubert will play?-----Oh! That devil yell!! The team must be coming back out. Bet Tommy's the last one on the field---Coach must be about halfway out now. Wonder if Mr. Bain came tonight?-----The starting lineup-----Why Jerry Langdon must be well! Thank goodness!-----Both bands? Why I didn't even know Mt. Olive had one--Well, ours sure sounds great--The teams are at attention now--Bet the majorettes are really stepping as usual!!

T here goes the yell!! They must be on the field!-----"All the way big team, all the way!-----Gosh! Phil recovered on his own 13?? Bet the confetties coming down!-----A penalty? Against us? Bet Coach is chewing his grass now!! Time out? Dean must be running out with the bucket! Who's collecting chewing gum, since Joe's playing?-----On the Mt. Olive 2???? Why that's almost---It is!! It is!! 7---0---"Loyal and brave and true, comrade and friend, our dear ole High School will stand---"-----Wonder why I'm so cold all of a sudden? Must be the flu? or maybe it's just (?!) It's hard to believe we're seniors now---only one more home game---and then Selma---What? Who? Walton? Bet Ann's having a fit now!!-----"Push 'em back, push 'em back--way back"-----Bet Julie's pulling hard!-----Stopped by Harold? Judy's probably screaming her head off-----on the Smithfield 12?? But they can't already be!!-----S.H.S.-----a little louder now!! S.H.S.-----Wonder if I'll always feel like this when I hear those magic letters--S.H.S.!!!-----The Smithfield 2?? But--"Doing the Charleston, balling the Jack,

Smithfield High will pay'em back!!! What's the band playing for? Oh! Must be Mt. Olive's band, I forgot! Oh! Well, they didn't make the extra point! Bet George Faulk's tearing up the tassels now!!-----"Go devils, go! freshmen are really yelling! Always do have more spirit that year!-----Mike surely can run'.! How many points has he made this year? Of course they've all got what it takes--teamwork! That's what makes a team click!-----Bet Darby and George are busy running up and down. Darby's coat is good-looking-----Who? Wesley? They'll have something in him next year! Robin and David, too. They're already good!-----Bet Miss Wayne's bundled up to her ears, as usual! With everybody kidding her!-----

"What? Please don't!! Please don't make me pull down the window, Mother!! I'll turn the heat up higher! Please? No, I won't get pneumonia. A little air never hurt anybody. I know I can read about it in the paper tomorrow! But that's not the point!!! Slam!

Oh, Well!!! How'd this old Asian Flu get over here anyway?"

CONGRATULATIONS, DIANA BESS!!

Diana Bess Montgomery, sophomore, has been notified that she is one of the two young soloists who have been selected to appear with the N. C. Symphony during the coming concert season. Seven contestants tried for the honor at the audition held at Chapel Hill, U.N.C., October 19. Nancy Lassiter, a 1955 and 1957 soloist with the Orchestra, played the orchestral accompaniment at a second piano at the audition.

Congratulations from all of us, Diana Bess! We're proud of you!
