MAY 17 PIANO AUDITION HONORS

Piano audition honors won Saturday, May 17, by three pupils who did not play at the April 21 auditions, follow:

Kay Boyette, pupil of Miss Ann Thunberg, was a District winner, scoring Excellent Plus on four pieces. Olivia Edmonson, pupil of Miss Flora Canaday, was a State winner, scoring Superior on eight pieces. Nancy Lassiter, who also studies with Miss Canaday, was a State winner on seven pieces which included a concerto movement by Mozart. Nancy's scoring was Superior Plus.

They were judged by Norvelle Bryan, who heads the music department of the Clayton School. Mr. Bryan and Miss Canaday are both faculty members of the National Guild of Piano Teachers.
