

FAREWELL TO THE SENIORS

The future seniors of '59 wish to congratulate the graduating seniors of '58 on their many achievements in the past twelve years. Your presentations of OUR TOWN and PRIDE AND PREJUDICE showed that much work was placed on these plays and that S.H.S. has a graduating class full of skillful men and women to be proud of.

We, as juniors, realize our responsibility in stepping into your empty shoes and only hope that the people of Smithfield will be as proud of us as they are of you.

The vacant seats in our band, the empty spots on our football, basketball, baseball, and track teams are certain to be missed, and we shall have a difficult time as we proceed to make up for these losses.

You have worked together; you have played together. May the experiences you have encountered in these now past years benefit and profit you as you proceed into your new world. Good luck and success from your successors!

WE'LL MISS THE SENIORS

"The New Year's Eve we did the town,
The night we tore the goal post down,
We'll have these moments to remember."

The seniors of '58 have many memories to always cherish. They, too, have left impressions on the remaining student body. Some of the things which we will miss most about the graduating students are these:

- Anne Ogburn--Margie Allen in Glee Club.
It will be too quiet.
- Jelynn Langdon--All of the boys!
- Emily--Roy, naturally.
- All of the girls--D. B. (if he's not still here)

- Delores P.--their smiling faces and sweet hellos in the morning.
- Kay P.--their definite superiority (?)
- Preston E.--their shining at the parties, especially at the highway.
- Dorothy C.--Nothing printable.
- Priscilla L.--Listening to Tucker's love episodes.
- Betsy J.--Waiting to hear Frank come home late at night.
- Jackie W.--Good looks! Melzer, for example.
- Sue Strickland--their snobbishness!
- Mary Jo W.--Just Sherwood!
- Junior Class--The competition they've given us.

These are only a few of the many unfor-gotten memories we'll have of the seniors. We can only say, to sum them all up, that we shall miss the seniors in every way.

SPORTS

BASEBALL WITH PAT AND JACK

Coach Jack Temple's Red Devil nine have compiled a 9-1 record in their baseball competition to capture the Southern Division title.

SMITHFIELD VS CLAYTON

On March 21, Smithfield opened its Southern Division baseball season and battled Clayton to a 2-2 tie. The game was called at the end of innings because of cold weather. Runs were made by Phil Ennis and Douglas Putnam. Phil Ennis led at bat with 1 hit for 3 trips to the plate.

SMITHFIELD VS FOUR OAKS

The Red Devils edged Four Oaks 4-3 on the Cardinal field March 31. Harvey Ennis drove in two runs with a double and a single in four times at bat. David Lee and Douglas Putnam also collected 2 hits for 4 times at bat. Righthander Brian Langley hurling eight innings struck out five and walked only two.
