

SMITHFIELD HIGH TIMES

David Lee leaves his football jersey to Coach Brown and requests that his gold football be given back to him.

Luther Massengill leaves his tips and job at Helen's Drive-In to Thomas Toole.

Phyllis Pace leaves her loud voice and black hair to Katie Lee Stanley.

Larry Moore leaves his place on the baseball team to James Thornton.

Carolyn Norris leaves her love for bookkeeping to Sylvia Nichols.

Ellen Tyner leaves Dan, promising to wait for him to pass history! Poor Ellen!

Wait! Wait! Wait!

Frances Johnson and Betty Daughtry leave their chatter boxes to Bonnie Powell and Margaret Reid.

Steve Mackler leaves his ability to laugh without making a sound to Bonnie Creech.

Frank Whitley leaves his ability to take surprise pictures of the couples in the back seat to Michael Blackman.

Sharon Sutton leaves her great love for Chemistry to Cynthia Ray.

Arthur West leaves his sympathy for the South in the Civil War to Brack Wilson.

Jackie Wall leaves her reading pills to Mary Ann Britt.

Adalia Wiggs leaves nothing behind for she hopes to re-enter high school next year and take 9th grade English. That girl really likes English.

Priscilla Wright leaves her good driving record to Lois Ann Williford.

Helen Ruth Parrish leaves her French pen pal to any junior who can read his letters.

Signed this first day of April in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty, by the Senior Class of the Smithfield High School.

Edwin Price, Wanda Exum
Testators