

IMA AND IRMA CONTINUE:

been lucky enough to go to several Rush Frat parties. How do you girls like those "State" boys? Kay, while I've got your attention, may I ask you one question? Just what is it that "A" pair of eyes has done for you?

Did someone say that Edith Whitley has given up? I always say, Edith, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again!" However, you'd better watch out for cousin Sylvia. I hear she's out to get you unless you leave a "certain someone" alone!

Vickie Ferrell! I'm ashamed of you! Is it true that you "stand up" boys from Wilson's Mills?

From what I've seen and heard, Hunter and Candy seem to be doing fine — some of the time!

Let's all congratulate Doug Warren. He's passed two tests this year! I hope he makes the sports page, too. I understand he's been pestering Mike Sellers about putting his name in the column.

Though Brenda Stancil normally drives slowly and cautiously, Highway 95 presents a real challenge to her, so I hear.

Margy Hinnant has really got the Christmas spirit. She's been singing lots and lots of "Carrolls" lately.

David Prevette has been seen down at "Granthams" Clothing Store quite often lately too. What could that mean?

Elaine Murphy seems to really enjoy riding in red Mustangs, doesn't she, Butch?

Janice Lee seems to think "there's no business like" beau business!" Everytime I see her, she's making eyes at a different boy just like he was the only one in the whole world! She's really a very sweet girl, especially in the way she welcomes newcomers.

Don't you think so, Larry Ray? There's a certain Underwood boy whose first initial is Ronnie that she thinks is real cute, too. She's got the name "Wayne" written all over her notebook. Anybody know who that is?

Kathy Hildebrand was really avoided one day not long ago. She got a souvenir from the General Motors demonstration and people stayed away from that as if it were a skunk or something. Confidentially, a skunk would have been an improvement over that "cake" she was carrying around!

Well, that's about all I've got to tell, so until next time, remember, we'll be watching you!

Oh, by the way, MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Faithfully,

Irma and Ima Snoop

BETTY CROCKER HOMEMAKERS

On December 7, the senior girls of SHS gathered in the library to take the Betty Crocker Homemakers Test sponsored by General Mills. The test consisted of a hundred multiple-choice questions concerning the different aspects of homemaking — cooking, sewing, child care, etc. After thirty-five minutes of answering the first hundred questions, the girls were to discuss the problems facing teen-age girls who will be the homemakers of tomorrow — in ten minutes!

This test was administered to 552,704 girls in high schools throughout the fifty states, not just to pick a winner but also to acquaint the girls with some of the everyday problems they will encounter in a married life.
